Classes Verso Classics:

Class Nick Stevenson, 2023-05-31 This accessible introductory text offers an engaging and thought provoking discussion of class in relation to several cultural sociological and political schools of thought and draws upon the works of a broad range of key theorists as well as contemporary thinkers to restate the ongoing importance of class as a sociological concept Class has long been a key focus of sociological and political studies This book explores what it might mean today in a twenty first century context Is class really disappearing Is class morally justifiable What impact has globalisation and neoliberalism had on the restructuring of class based social relationships These questions and others are explored in this short but lively book Stevenson reviews a number of normative traditions including anarchist Marxist social democratic and citizenship based forms of understanding of class in order to shed light on the themes of class based experiences health and inequality work class struggle social movements and the possibility of developing more egalitarian and just societies in the future This short book will be invaluable to general readers and students in the humanities and social sciences seeking an accessible introduction to the central problems raised by discussions of class in the twenty first century

International Trade Policy and Class Dynamics in South Africa Simone Claar, 2017-12-07 This book provides an innovative perspective on class dynamics in South Africa focusing specifically on how different interests have shaped economic and trade policy As an emerging market South African political and economic actions are subject to the attention of international trade policy Claar provides an in depth class analysis of the contradictory negotiation processes that occurred between South Africa and the European Union on Economic Partnership Agreements EPA examining the divergent roles played by the political and economic elite and the working class The author considers their relationships with the new global trade agenda as well as their differing standpoints on the EPA

Unravelling the Social Formation Akif Avci, 2022-03-28 In Unravelling the Social Formation Free Trade the State and Business Associations in Turkey Akif Avci examines the role of business associations and the state in Turkey in analysing the dialectical relationship between global free trade and Turkish social formation since 2002 The manuscript constructs a three levels analysis based on the social relations of production forms of state and world order It explores the class characteristics of the business associations the role of the Turkish state in the process of integration into global capitalism and at the same time internalisation of the global class relations inside Turkish social formation It offers a fresh evaluation of imperialism theories and the uneven and combined development U CD approach from a neo Gramscian perspective
