Creating Value In Financial Services Creating Value In Financial Services:

Creating Value in Financial Services Edward L. Melnick, 2000 In identifying the problem of the upheaval in financial services the editors have given the reader a great deal to contemplate They make clear that deregulation is accelerating the blurring of boundaries between insurance commercial banking investment banking and brokerage At the same time the worldwide demographics for the financial services industry have never been better This convergence of competitive change and increasing opportunity make a book like this especially timely one that carefully analyzes the need for specialized financial services and the importance of these services to be delivered efficiently with moderate cost It is increasingly apparent that critical for success in the financial services industry is an innovative flexible management team who can recognize and act on these fast moving developments

Creating Value in Financial Services Edward L. Melnick, Praveen R. Nayyar, Michael L. Pinedo, Sridhar Seshadri, 2012-12-06 Creating Value in Financial Services is a compilation of state of the art views of leading academics and practitioners on how financial service firms can succeed in today's competitive environment The book is based on two conferences held at New York University the first Creating Value in Financial Services held in March 1997 and the second Operations and Productivity in Financial Services in April 1998 The book is essentially designed to be a compendium of leading edge thinking and practice in the management of financial services firms There is no book today that has this focus It contains ideas that can apply to other service industries Topics addressed are increasingly important worldwide as the financial services industries consolidate and search for innovative new directions and ways to create value in a fiercely competitive environment

Creating Value for All, 2008 The extreme prevalence of poverty in today's world calls us urgently for action Yet the poor harbour a potential for consumption production innovation and entrepreneurial activity that is largely untapped This report shows how entrepreneurs can serve the poor as clients and customers and can also include the poor as producers employees and business owners The report's main message Business with the poor can create value for all The publication draws on 50 specially commissioned case studies of businesses that have successfully included the poor despite the constraints and created value for all The cases afford the wealth of ideas for inclusive business models
