

A movie poster for 'Alien Invasion'. The top half features a large, dark, metallic alien head with a menacing, ribbed texture, its mouth open as if screaming or roaring. Below the head, a man with long, light brown hair is shown from the chest up, his face contorted in a scream with his eyes closed and hands clutching his head. The background is a misty, dark landscape with silhouettes of trees and a fence line. The title 'ALIEN INVASION' is at the bottom in a large, green, stylized font. In the top right corner, the text 'WE DO NOT COME IN PEACE' is written in a white, sans-serif font.

Call, 2012-10-19 A history of the love affair between BDSM Bondage Discipline Dominance Submission Sadism Masochism and science fiction and fantasy Lewis Call explores representations of BDSM in the 1940s Wonder Woman comics the pioneering prose of Samuel Delany and James Tiptree and the television shows Battlestar Galactica Buffy Angel and Dollhouse

The Splintering Frame William J. Scheick, 1984 The notion that Wells s best work includes some of his later discursive novels of ideas might seem perverse This focuses on Wells s fiction of the 1920s and 1930s and its goal is to deepen appreciation of Wells as a literary artist Any consideration of Wells s artistry necessarily entails a consideration of his ideas and this book focuses primarily on his concept of time and of the human will

Young Adult Resources Today Don Latham, Melissa Gross, 2014-05-21 Young Adult Resources Today Connecting Teens with Books Music Games Movies and More is the first comprehensive young adult library services textbook specifically written for today s multidimensional information landscape The authors integrate a research focused information behavior approach with a literature focused resources approach and bring together in one volume key issues related to research theory and practice in the provision of information services to young adults Currently no single book addresses both YA information behaviors and information resources in any detail instead books tend to focus on one and give only cursory attention to the other Key features of this revolutionary book include its success in Integrating theory research and practice Integrating implications for practice throughout the book Integrating knowledge of resources with professional practice as informed by research Integrating both print and electronic formats throughout within the resource chapters including websites and social media Latham and Gross accomplish all this while paying particular attention to the socially constructed nature of young adulthood diversity YA development and multiple literacies Their coverage of information landscapes covers literature with detailed coverage of both genres and subgenres movies magazines web sites social media and gaming The final chapter cover navigating information landscapes focusing on real and virtual YA spaces readers advisory programming and collaboration Special attention is paid to program planning and evaluation Building Bridges between Cultures in Ian McDonald's Science Fiction Jerome Winter,2025-09-18 This book is a career long retrospective of the Irish writer Ian McDonald and his complex compelling representation of our contemporary global condition Ian McDonald is a celebrated writer within the science fiction community whose rich and urgent body of works span over a quarter of a century The author claims McDonald s work functions as vital troubling allegories which both refuse the Orientalist euphemizing of colonial atrocities while still at the same time envisioning a transformative global alterity seeking an ethical and political embrace of systematically silenced subaltern voices in the neoliberal world system The book follows McDonald as the globe trotting writer travels from Ireland to Kenya to India to Brazil to Turkey to a proliferating multiverse and beyond Along the way the author analyzes McDonald s science fiction as a salient contribution to the flourishing cosmopolitan literature of postcolonial developing nations at the crossroads of the global imaginary

Science-fiction Studies ,2007 The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism in Public Discourse, Literature, and Film

Michael Frank,2017-06-14 This study investigates the overlaps between political discourse and literary and cinematic fiction arguing that both are informed by and contribute to the cultural imaginary of terrorism Whenever mass mediated acts of terrorism occur they tend to trigger a proliferation of threat scenarios not only in the realm of literature and film but also in the statements of policymakers security experts and journalists In the process the discursive boundary between the factual and the speculative can become difficult to discern To elucidate this phenomenon this book proposes that terror is a halfway house between the real and the imaginary For what characterizes terrorism is less the single act of violence than it is the fact that this act is perceived to be the beginning or part of a potential series and that further acts are expected to occur As turn of the century writers such as Stevenson and Conrad were the first to point out this gives terror a fantastical dimension a fact reinforced by the clandestine nature of both terrorist and counter terrorist operations Supported by contextual readings of selected texts and films from The Dynamiter and The Secret Agent through late Victorian science fiction to post 9 11 novels and cinema this study explores the complex interplay between actual incidents of political violence the surrounding discourse and fictional engagement with the issue to show how terrorism becomes an object of fantasy Drawing on research from a variety of disciplines The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism will be a valuable resource for those with interests in the areas of Literature and Film Terrorism Studies Peace and Conflict Studies Trauma Studies and Cultural Studies Allelopathy Zahid A.
