Canoeing in the Wilderness Henry David Thoreau,2015 Welcome to Simplicity You are holding the only wilderness paddling guide that tells you not just what gear you need but what to leave behind and how to judge the difference Welcome to discovery This guide equips you to design and plan your own expedition instead of slavishly following a trip mapped by an expert Welcome to experience Any good book can outline the requisite skills for backcountry paddling This one also shows by example when and why to use them Here are the keys to canoe tripping whether for expeditions of one to one hundred days Alan Kesselheim is both a master paddler with 25 years and more than 10 000 miles of wilderness paddling behind him and a writer of uncommon grace and skill He has created here a book of concentrated wisdom that is so pleasurable to read you may scarcely realize how much you're learning. The Wilderness Paddler's Handbook packages rich nuggets of experience in stories that entertain while they instruct. Most how-to books are written either to grow into or to outgrow. Not this one. You can start with The Wilderness Paddler's Handbook and you can keep going. You can paddle right off the map. Canoeing in the Wilderness Henry David Thoreau, 2021-04-16. canoeing in the wilderness. Canoeing in the Wilderness Henry David Thoreau, 2021-03-31. From the great nature writer behind Walden comes an account of a trip he made into the wilderness. Canoeing in the Wilderness Henry David Thoreau, 2014-06-02. I started on my third excursion to the Maine woods Monday July 20 1857 with one companion arriving at Bangor the next day at noon. The succeeding morning a relative of mine who is well acquainted with the Penobscot Indians took me in his wagon to Oldtown to assist me in obtaining an Indian for this expedition. We were ferried across to the Indian Island in a bateau. The ferryman's boy had the key to it but the father who was a blacksmith after a little hesitation cut the chain with a cold chisel on the rock. He told me that the Indians were nearly all gone to the seaboard and to Massachusetts partly on account of the smallpox of which they are very much afraid having broken out in Oldtown. The old chief Neptune however was there still. The first man we saw on the island was an Indian named Joseph Polis whom my relative addressed familiarly as Joe. He was dressing a deerskin in his yard. The skin was spread over a slanting log and he was scraping it with a stick held by both hands. He was stoutly built perhaps a little above the middle height with a broad face and as others said perfect Indian features and complexion. His house was a two story white one with blinds the best looking that I noticed there and as good as an average one on a New England village street. It was surrounded by a garden and fruit trees single cornstalks standing thinly amid the beans. We asked him if he knew any good Indian who would like to go into the woods with us that is to the Allegash Lakes by way of Moosehead and return by the East Branch of the Penobscot.
