Families, Schools, and Communities Chandler Barbour,Nita Barbour,Patricia A. Scully,2008 A basic tenet of Families Schools Communities Building Partnerships for Educating Children fourth edition is that schools will always be a primary venue for educating the young child and educators must be in the forefront of any endeavor to bring about change However the authors stress that to accomplish the tasks at hand all school districts must develop vibrant partnerships uniting parents and community members with teachers in educating tomorrow's citizens Schools are where the action will bloom but respectful collaboration is the key to success

Literacy Development in Early Childhood Beverly Otto,2015-08-19 Written by an author with more than 25 years of experience in the emergent literacy field this popular text provides a comprehensive overview of literacy development from infancy through the primary grades emphasizing the role of oral language as a foundation for literacy home school connections and cultural influences on literacy development Chapters follow a logical sequence from identification of the signs of early literacy behaviors to developmentally appropriate strategies for enhancing those behaviors Observation and assessment forms for classroom use are integrated throughout. This highly regarded guide helps teachers become thoughtful mediators in children's transactions with literacy. Additional features provides teachers with tools for reflective literacy instruction. The text's organization and narrative encourages pre-service teachers to become effective decision makers who select and implement instructional strategies based on their knowledge of individual children's emergent literacy behaviors and needs. Explores literacy strategies through classroom and home based examples and vignettes. Numerous vignettes and examples of teacher child interactions demonstrate literacy scaffolding in an applied and authentic manner. Supports teachers in multicultural and urban settings. An emphasis on linguistic and cultural diversity including an array of strategies for English language learners provides today's teachers with the knowledge to help all children succeed. Bookstart Jennifer Birckmayer, Bonnie Jo Westendorf, 1996. A program intended to inform those who care for children about the delights of books and language related activities.
