The Five Hundred, the elite families who rule the Terran Federation, control its political power and its wealth, and they've grown steadily wealthier and more powerful thanks to the war against the Terran League. War may be hard on the people who get caught in its path, but it's very good for business in the short term, and the Five Hundred own the shipyards that build the Navy's ships. They own virtually all the industry that produces the weapons and materiel the war consumes so voraciously, and they've made damn sure someone else does the dying. True, there are a few flies in the Five Hundred's ointment. There's the growing hatred and resentment of the Fringe Worlds whose children do eighty percent of the dying in the Five Hundred's war. But the Five Hundred have made sure the Fringe knows what will happen to any system that goes out of compliance. There are the lunatic conspiracy nuts who insist that the alien Rishathan Sphere is secretly aiding the League's military, but the Five Hundred have forced them to keep their mouths shut where it matters. And then there's Terrence Murphy, a man of honor who loves the Federation who springs from the Five Hundred yet knows it for what it is and is determined to speak for its victims. But the five hundred have dispatched ample force to deal with him and his handful of lunatic followers. Unfortunately, the Fringe has paid enough of its children's lives, and it no longer cares what may happen if it dares to defy the Five Hundred. Worse, the lunatic conspiracy nuts were right, and the Rish have planned carefully for the Federation's destruction. And worst of all, the Five Hundred have fatally underestimated Terrence Murphy. At the publisher's request, this title is sold without DRM (Digital Rights Management). Praise for Governor: The authors pack the story with both the specs of far-future fighting machines and the hypercompetent duty-driven warriors who crew them. Echoes of Robert Heinlein: lots of exploding temporal spaceships and bodies. Action-packed. Booklist: a fun and thrilling standalone from Weber and Holo. Praise for David Weber: a balanced mix of interstellar intrigue, counterespionage, and epic fleet action with all the hard and software details and tactical proficiency that Weber delivers like no one else, along with a large cast of well-developed, believable characters giving each clash of fleets emotional weight.
