

A movie poster for 'Alien Invasion'. The top half features a large, dark, metallic alien head with a menacing, ribbed texture, its mouth open as if screaming. Below it, a man with long brown hair is shown from the chest up, his face contorted in a scream with his eyes closed and hands clutching his head. The background is a misty, forested landscape. The text 'WE DO NOT COME IN PEACE' is in the top right, and 'ALIEN INVASION' is at the bottom in large, glowing green letters.

Features entries on a number of key science fiction authors and extensive discussion of major science fiction novels or sequences. Writers and works include Isaac Asimov, Margaret Atwood, George Orwell, Ursula K. Le Guin, The War of the Worlds 1898, Starship Troopers 1959, Mars Trilogy 1993, 6 and many more. A Science Fiction Glossary completes this indispensable Handbook.

Historical Dictionary of Science Fiction in Literature M. Keith Booker, 2014-10-01 The Historical Dictionary of Science Fiction in Literature is a useful reference to the broad and burgeoning field of science fiction literature. Science fiction literature has gained immensely in critical respect and attention while maintaining a broad readership. However, despite the fact that it is a rapidly changing field, contemporary science fiction literature also maintains a strong sense of its connections to science fiction of the past, which makes a historical reference of this sort particularly valuable as a tool for understanding science fiction literature as it now exists and as it has evolved over the years. The Historical Dictionary of Science Fiction in Literature covers the history of science fiction in literature through a chronology, an introductory essay, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries, including significant people, themes, critical issues, and the most significant genres that have formed science fiction literature. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about this subject.

Elizabethan Fictions Robert W. Maslen, 1997 In Elizabethan Fictions Robert Maslen argues that English writers of prose fiction from the 1550s to the 1570s produced some of the most daringly innovative publications of the sixteenth century Through close examination of a number of key texts from William Baldwin's satirical fable Eurewe the Cat to George Gascoigne's mock romance The Adventures of Master F. J. and John Lyly's immensely popular Uphues books he sets out to demonstrate the courage as well as the considerable skills which these undervalued authors brought to their work They wrote at a time when the Elizabethan censorship system was growing increasingly rigorous in response to the perceived threat of infiltration from Catholic Europe yet they chose to write books of a kind that was specifically associated with Catholic Italy and France Their topics were the secrets, lies and acts of petty treason which vitiated the private lives of the contemporary ruling classes and their vigorous experiments with style and form marked out prose fiction for years to come as shifty and perilous literary territory These writers presented themselves as masters of the arts of duplicity whose talents made them eminently suitable for employment as informers or spies whether for the government or for its most deadly ideological opponents Their sophisticated narratives of sexual intrigue had a profound effect on the development of the complex poetry and drama which sprung up towards the end of the century as well as of the modern novel This book provides a much needed reappraisal of their achievements _ _ Strategic Analysis, 1986-04 International Aerospace Abstracts, 1996 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance, 1873 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1873 The Cumulative Book Index, 1982 A world list of books in the English language The Spectator, 1883 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art
