Conversations With Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak:

Conversations with Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, Swapan Chakravorty, 2006 The interviews collected in this book reflect the international character of Spivak's intellectual engagement with the ideas and the politics which are shaping our world. Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Stephen Morton, 2003-09-02 Spivak's work is essential but very difficult to understand; this is the first student guide to her work filling a glaring gap in the market. Spivak is compulsory study on undergraduate literary theory courses. Her work covers feminism, deconstruction, and postcolonialism, all core topics in literary theory. Spivak is also central to the study of postcolonial literatures, which is one of the three most popular undergraduate modules in the UK. Extremely clear structure. It concentrates on one idea per chapter. A key addition to the Routledge Critical Thinkers series, providing clear introductions to key thinkers for students of literary studies. The Gender Conversation Edwina Murphy, David Ian Starling, 2016-05-13 Conversations about gender both inside and outside the church can frequently degenerate into stale and rancorous disputes in which predictable arguments are traded back and forth or fade awkwardly away into the tense silences of mutual misunderstanding. But the issue is an important one and calls for a better conversation than either of those alternatives. In September 2015 Morling College hosted a one-day symposium entitled 'The Gender Conversation'. A rich and diverse mix of contributors met to discuss issues of gender, theology, and Christian living within a shared framework of evangelical conviction. Our aim in hosting the symposium was to deepen mutual understanding and respect, highlight common ground, clarify points of difference, and unite us all in a quest to learn from the Scriptures and live in the light of the gospel. This book brings together the papers presented at the symposium and the contributors' responses to one another as a resource for further reflection and discussion.

Feminist Conversations

Christina Zwarg, 2018-05-31 In a new account of the relationship between Margaret Fuller and Ralph Waldo Emerson, Christina Zwarg recreates a feminist conversation that has gone unheard. In Zwarg's view, the intimate yet restrained letters between the two writers are most significant in confronting the challenges posed by gender and desire. Focusing on their exploration of Charles Fourier's utopianism and particularly his concept of passionate attraction, Zwarg offers the only detailed reading of Emerson's letters to Fuller. Postcolonial Studies Pramod K. Nayar, 2015-07-09 This new anthology brings together the most diverse and recent voices in postcolonial theory to emerge since 9/11 alongside classic texts in established areas of postcolonial studies. Brings fresh insight and renewed political energy to established domains such as nation history, literature, and gender. Engages with contemporary concerns such as globalization, digital cultures, neo-colonialism, and language debates. Includes wide geographical coverage from Ireland and India to Israel and Palestine. Provides uniquely broad coverage, offering a full sense of the tradition including significant essays on science, technology, and development, education, and literacy, digital cultures, and transnationalism. Edited by a distinguished postcolonial scholar, this insightful volume serves scholars and students across multiple disciplines from literary and cultural studies to anthropology.

and digital studies Keywords in Radical Geography The Antipode Editorial Collective, 2019-06-10 The online version of Keywords in Radical Geography Antipode at 50 is free to download here Alternatively print copies can be purchased for just GB 7 US 10 here To celebrate Antipode's 50th anniversary we've brought together 50 short keyword essays by a range of scholars at varying career stages who all in some way have some kind of affinity with Antipode's radical geographical project The entries in this volume are diverse eclectic and to an extent random however they all speak to our discipline's past present and future in exciting and suggestive ways Contributors have taken unusual or novel terms concepts or sets of ideas important to their research and their essays discuss them in relation to radical and critical geography's histories current condition and possible future directions This fractal playful and provocative intervention in the field stands as a fitting testimony to the role that Antipode has played in the generation of radical geographical engagement with the world

Just Being Difficult? Jonathan D. Culler,Kevin Lamb,2003 Is academic writing particularly in the disciplines of literary theory and cultural studies needlessly obscure The claim has been widely circulated in the media and subject to passionate debate but it has not been the subject of serious discussion Just Being Difficult provides learned and thoughtful analyses of the claim of those it targets and of the entire question of how critical writing relates to its intended publics and to audiences beyond them In this book a range of distinguished scholars including some who have been charged with willful obscurity argue for the interest and importance of some of the procedures that critics have preferred to charge with obscurity rather than confront in another way The debate on difficult writing hovers on the edges of all academic writing that seeks to play a role in the public arena This collection is a much needed contribution to the discussion
