Conversations With James Joyce:

Conversations with James Joyce Arthur Power, 1999 This is the first paperback edition of Arthur Power's unique and fascinating account of his friendship with James Joyce during the 1920s Conversations with James Joyce Georges Borach, 1954 Reader's Joyce Sophie Corser, 2022-04-27 Rethinks the relationships between author reader and text in literature and criticism through a study of James Joyce. The Reader's Joyce engages with core issues of literary studies by rethinking accepted literary critical and theoretical notions of the relationships between author reader and text. This monograph describes and queries the activity of reading prompted by the intertextuality and narrative of James Joyce's Ulysses 1922 focusing on in depth readings of the novel and its interactions with other texts from classical and contemporary literature to criticism theory and biography. Central to this approach are new analyses of the now commonly underplayed significance of Homer's Odyssey to Ulysses and of how authority functions in the developing critical reception of Ulysses since its publication. Through the prisms of Ulysses and the Joyce industry this monograph provides new perspectives on the author reader text triad in the wider field of literary criticism diving into layered histories of concepts challenges and retreats in order to ask how we read now. Key Features Offers the first extended exploration of authority in the reception of a canonical modernist author. Re centres Homer in Ulysses and its reception. Presents an innovative approach to issues of reading by marrying new close textual analysis of sections of Ulysses with critical archival and literary reception studies. Suggests a new understanding of literary and critical acts of reading and authorship. Keywords: James Joyce, Homer, theories of reading, authorship, classical reception, metacriticism. Subject: Literature. James Joyce E H Mikhail, 1990-06-29 Encounters in Greek and Irish Literature Paschalis Nikolaou, 2020-03-20 Encounters in Greek and Irish Literature brings together literary experts in two traditions and some contemporary novelists writing in them. This distinctive group includes Katy Hayes, Mia Gallagher, Deirdre Madden, Paraic O'Donnell, Christos Chrysopoulos, Panos Karnezis, Sophia Nikolaïdou and Ersi Sotiropoulos. Their work is presented in context not only through excerpts from published and unpublished fiction but also through eight self reflective essays that enhance our understanding of these authors' themes and modes. All these critical texts originate from a unique gathering of scholars and creative talent held at the Ionian University Corfu in October 2017 predominantly exploring Greek and Irish prose writing and the relationships between them. This volume paints a more complete picture through added scenes from drama, poetry and translation and through considerations of the history and associations of two literatures at the edges of Europe. Translation is integral to the dialogues fostered by the selected works by the Irish and Greek writers. This material further contributes to a remarkably structured look at the business of publishing these authors beyond Greece and Ireland. The book opens with a comprehensive introductory essay by Joanna Kruczowska and further insights into the creative mind and aspects of publishing are provided through a roundtable with the authors recorded at the time of the festival.

writing and the workings of two literary systems Joyce's Politics Dominic Manganiello,2015-12-22 The object of this study first published in 1980 is to dispel the view that James Joyce had no political views Although not a political novelist like D H Lawrence or Joseph Conrad political issues and discussions are central to Joyce's major novels This title links that political content with Joyce's own views and examines the evolution of those views and attitudes A number of unusual and fascinating sources for Joyce's thought are uncovered Joyce's Politics is thus a thorough review of a neglected aspect of Joyce and his writings and will be of interest to students of literature Longing for an Absent God Nick Ripatrazone,2020-03-03 Longing for an Absent God unveils the powerful role of faith and doubt in the American literary tradition Nick Ripatrazone explores how two major strands of Catholic writers practicing and cultural intertwine and sustain each other Ripatrazone explores the writings of devout American Catholic writers in the years before the Second Vatican Council through the work of Flannery O'Connor J F Powers and Walker Percy those who were raised Catholic but drifted from the church such as the Catholic educated Don DeLillo and Cormac McCarthy the convert Toni Morrison the Mass going Thomas Pynchon and the ritual driven Louise Erdrich and a new crop of faithful American Catholic writers including Ron Hansen Phil Klay and Alice

McDermott who write Catholic stories for our contemporary world These critically acclaimed and award winning voices illustrate that Catholic storytelling is innately powerful and appealing to both secular and religious audiences Longing for an Absent God demonstrates the profound differences in the storytelling styles and results of these two groups of major writers but ultimately shows how taken together they offer a rich and unique American literary tradition that spans the full spectrum of doubt and faith Joyce the Creator Sheldon Brivic,1985 Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company A Passion for Joyce Hugh Kenner,Adaline Glasheen,2008 The extant letter written to each other by the renowned Joyce scholars Hugh Kenner and Adaline Glasheen between 1953 and 1984
