Conversing With Angels And Ancients:

Conversing with Angels and Ancients Joseph Falaky Nagy, 1997 How does a written literature come into being within an oral culture and how does such a literature achieve and maintain its authority Joseph Falaky Nagy addresses those issues in his wide ranging reading of the medieval literature of Ireland from the writings of St Patrick to the epic tales about the warrior C Chulainn These texts written in both Latin and Irish constitute an adventurous and productive experiment in staging confrontations between the written and the spoken the Christian and the pagan The early Irish literati primarily clerics living within a monastic milieu produced literature that included saints lives heroic sagas law tracts and other genres They sought to invest their literature with an authority different from that of the traditions from which they borrowed native and foreign To achieve this goal they cast many of their texts as the outcome of momentous dialogues between saints and angelic messengers or remarkable interviews with the dead who could reveal some insight from the past that needed to be rediscovered by forgetful contemporaries Conversing with angels and ancients medieval Irish writers boldly inscribed their visions of the past onto the new Christian order and its literature Nagy includes portions of the original Latin and Irish texts that are not readily available to scholars along with full translations The Ancient Tradition of Angels Normandi Ellis, 2023-03-07 An in depth study into the mystery and purpose of angels Explains that angels are beings of light consciousness here to help our individual and planetary cosmic evolution Explores angels from Judeo Christian and Islamic faiths Hinduism and Buddhism the beliefs of ancient Egypt Yezidism and Zoroastrianism as well as what Theosophists Kabbalists Sufi masters Eastern gurus and modern mystics like Edgar Cayce have recounted about angels Examines contemporary angelic encounters including the author's own interactions with angels and also looks at the purpose of dark angels and fallen angels From the divine messengers of Western traditions to the devas of Eastern traditions to the meleks and spirit beings found along the Silk Road angels are one of the unifying themes of theology worldwide But what is an angel and why do they contact us believers and nonbelievers alike In this in depth study into the mystery and purpose of angels Normandi Ellis looks at the angelic dimensions of spiritual traditions around the world from the ancient past to present day She explores well known angels from Judeo Christian and Islamic faiths the Hindu devata and Buddhist spirit beings the spirit beings of ancient Egypt the Peacock Angel of Yezidism and the yazatas of Zoroastrianism She compares angelic visions from medieval Christians like Thomas Aquinas and John of Damascus with what Theosophists kabbalists Sufi masters Eastern gurus and modern mystics like Edgar Cayce have recounted about angels She looks at dark and fallen angels and their role in the grand cosmological plan Quoting from sacred traditions narrative myth and contemporary angelic encounters including her own personal interactions with angels the author clarifies the divergent aspects of angelic beliefs but also reveals the common points shared by all traditions Ellis shows how in whatever guise they appear angels are messengers She explains that angels are beings of light consciousness part of the universal life force that connects all beings And not only are angels
