Coping with Death in the Family Gerald Schneiderman, Coping with Life after Your Mate Dies Donald C. Cushenbery, Rita Cushenbery, 1997-08-01 Nothing devastates someone quite like the loss of a spouse. This life-giving book helps the bereaved be proactive in dealing with grief and rediscovering a life worth living. Life After the Divorce Medard Laz, 1998 This realistic but sympathetic book offers solid guidance and counsel based on the actual experiences of those who have faced divorce or separation. Paperback When Your Lover Dies Robert Brigham, 2008-05 This book explores key questions about women's rights and gender equality in the wake of political turmoil, demographic dislocation, institutionalized violence, and deep economic disparities. These questions focus on the balancing and enforcement of rights viewed as a secular construct within societies with deeply entrenched cultural and religious mores and also examine the competing and sometimes contradictory claims of individual rights on the one hand and community concerns or imperatives on the other. How does a society commence the project of gender equality after a brutal history of conflict, dislocation, dispossession, exclusion, distinction, and discrimination? How are the foundations laid and legal strategies adopted and cultivated? How does a society balance what is perceived as the secular nature of rights enforcement within a context of deeply entrenched religious mores or customary norms? And ultimately why does there persist such subordination, disadvantage, and discrimination despite the existence of constitutional and legal protections for women? Utilizing the South African process of legal transformation as a paradigm, author Penelope Andrews applies this model to Afghanistan, another contemporary context of transformation. These two societies serve as counterpoints through which she engages in a nuanced and novel way with the many broader issues that flow from the attempts in newly democratic societies to give effect to the promise of gender equality.

Surviving the Death of Your Spouse Deborah S. Levinson LCSW, 2011-06-21 African Philosophy and the Epistemic Marginalization of Women Jonathan Chimakonam, Louise du Toit, 2018-04-20 This book examines the underexplored notion of epistemic marginalization of women in the African intellectual place. Women's issues are still very much neglected by governments, corporate bodies, and academics in sub-Saharan Africa. The entrenched traditional world views which privilege men over women make it difficult for the modern day challenges posed by the neglect of the feminine epistemic perspective to become obvious Contributors address these issues from both theoretical and practical perspectives demonstrating what philosophy could do to ameliorate the epistemic marginalization of women as well as ways in which African philosophy exacerbates this marginalization Philosophy is supposed to teach us how to lead the good life in all its ramifications why is it failing in this duty in Africa where the issue of women's epistemic vision is concerned The chapters raise feminist agitations to a new level beginning from the regular campaigns for various women's rights and reaching a climax in an epistemic struggle in which the knowledge controlling power to create acquire evaluate regulate and disseminate is proposed as the last frontier of feminism Only Retirement Guide You'll Ever Need Kathryn Petras, Ross Petras, 1991-11-15 The comprehensive guide to every aspect of retirement Cover subtitle Men Coping with Grief Dale A.
