Fabrizi,2023-12-06 Stories of vampires werewolves zombies witches goblins mummies and other supernatural creatures have existed for time immemorial and scary stories are among the earliest types of fiction ever recorded Historical Dictionary of Horror Literature is an invaluable aid in studying horror literature including influential authors texts terms subgenres and literary movements This book contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 400 cross referenced entries covering authors subgenres tropes awards organizations and important terms related to horror Historical Dictionary of Horror Literature is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about horror literature     ReVisions Wendy Roy,2025-11-21 ReVisions examines speculative fiction film and television created by artists in Canada and reflecting their distinct experiences. Bringing together critical and creative works by eighteen different authors the book re-envisioned Canadian politics, cultures and societies and asks important questions about representations of our world. The collection examines the realm of the past through a futuristic speculative lens asking readers to revise their understandings of past events and current relationships. Editor Wendy Roy assembles a variety of investigations of Canada and the larger world including studies of the use of apocalyptic and dystopian scenarios by Indigenous writers to revisit Canada's history of colonization. The varied contributions demonstrate that speculative writing can help us to see what is happening in the world around us and at the same time to re-envision it to reconsider the consequences of our actions and to imagine revised and perhaps better futures.

After the Fall: Tales of the Apocalypse: A Collection of Short Stories Robert Holtom, Thomas Brown, Andrew Saksma, 2014-02-24

A desolate landscape wracked with upheaval the uncanny nature of a place once so familiar. A revelation of what was formerly undisclosed the harbingers of apocalypse are edging ever closer. The wasteland of abandoned memories the end of the world or a chance for a new beginning. Be it a personal apocalypse or one of great cataclysm the stories that arise from the rubble are tales of aftermath and tales of survival. Bridging the gap between Science Fiction and Horror the gothic overtones of the apocalyptic imagination are explored to their full extent in these short stories.

After the Fall Tales of the Apocalypse is a collection of twenty short stories from some of the best up and coming writers of modern science fiction. All apocalyptic or dystopian in nature some stories bring laughter while others bring tears but each is unique in its interpretation of the theme.
