Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre, 2016-01-01 In the richly interdisciplinary study Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre argues that popular culture in its many forms contributes to common assumptions about the causes and personal and social implications of addiction Recent fictional depictions of addiction significantly refute the idea that addiction is caused by poor individual choices or solely by disease through the connections the authors draw between substance use and poverty colonialism and gender based violence With particular interest in the pervasive myth of the Drunken Indian Fabre asserts that these novels reimagine addiction as social suffering rather than individual pathology or moral failure Fabre builds on the growing body of humanities research that brings literature into active engagement with other fields of study including biomedical and cognitive behavioural models of addiction medical and health policies of harm reduction and the practices of Alcoholics Anonymous The book further engages with critical pedagogical strategies to teach critical awareness of stereotypes of addiction and to encourage the potential of literary analysis as a form of social activism

Addiction and Responsibility Francis F. Seeburger, 1993 Is addiction a disease a behavior disorder a moral failing Is it genetic or learned What is it like to be addicted What are its roots and how can it be uprooted Anyone who has wrestled with such basic questions about addiction will find welcome answers in this groundbreaking philosophical inquiry into the addictive mind The author helps readers to understand addiction existentially as a fundamental way in which we can be Addiction argues the author bears witness to a basic human longing that no thing can satisfy It is a distortion of that longing one that misses its mark the original meaning of sin It leads to a complex process of dis own ment in which the addict strips himself of ownership over himself and his own life Genuine freedom from addiction ultimately requires practicing a radical form of detachment in which we allow ordinary experience to wash over us with the full force of its true extra ordinariness This reverses the process of dis own ment and returns us to ourselves In such detachment we are given back responsibility the ability truly to respond to events rather than just reacting to them This major work is addressed to all those who have ever had to face addiction either in themselves or in those they love and who are still struggling to understand it Mining both Western and Eastern sources psychology and spirituality as well as philosophy Addiction and Responsibility brings an important topic to a new level BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Handbook of Themes for Preaching James William Cox,1991 Experts from various fields offer concise definition analysis and discussion of nearly one hundred preaching topics Subjects discussed include decision making abortion incarnation poverty education the Ten Commandments jealousy wealth stewardship and violence and war      TV Self-Defense Kit Mike Haller,1982-10      The Praeger International Collection on Addictions Angela Browne Miller,2009      The Medical Journal of Australia ,1933      Analyses of Contemporary Society: Ellul, J.
