Johnson, Robert Lusch, David Schmitz, 2019-10-04 One of the greatest and most joyful challenges of adult life is to develop skills that make the people around us better off with us than without us Integrity is a key part of that challenge We are social animals aiming not simply to trade but to make a place for ourselves in a community You don't want to have to pretend that you feel proud of fooling your customers into believing you could be trusted The ethical question is how do people have to live in order to make the world a better place with them than without them The economic question is what kind of society makes people willing and able to use their talents in a way that is good for them and for the people around them The entrepreneurial question is what does it take to show up in the marketplace with something that can take your community to a different level In this book the authors discuss the connections between the ethical economic and entrepreneurial dimensions of a life well lived Teen Dream Jobs Nora Coon, 2003 Teen Dream Jobs presents advice to job searching teens with practical information and resources Photos
