

IKEDA CENTER DIALOGUE COMMITMENTS

AVOID PRE-JUDGING AND CATEGORIZING PEOPLE

"We need to be aware of the danger of categorizing people into such simplistic binaries as good and bad, us and them, and friend and foe. Such an approach is one of the deep drivers of conflict." – Daisaku Ikeda

STRIVE TO BRING OUT THE BEST IN ONESELF AND OTHERS

"These vibrant sessions [of dialogue] develop as participants give voice to the calls that issue freely from their lives, mutually respecting each other and bringing forth the best that each possesses." – Daisaku Ikeda

LISTEN TO AND LEARN FROM EACH OTHER

"Elise Boulding reminded us that the creation of a culture of peace begins from our own effort to listen to others; that when we lend our ears to opposing opinions, this can bring to light the hidden essence of things, enabling us to grasp the core aspect of an issue." – Daisaku Ikeda

LISTEN.
LISTEN...

REMEMBER THAT CHANGE BEGINS WITH US

"Dialogue is a choice requiring genuine courage and strength. It is the ultimate constructive undertaking of the human spirit. And it is for this reason that conflict resolution through dialogue holds the promise of a genuine and lasting solution." – Daisaku Ikeda

Commitment In Dialogue Commitment In Dialogue:

Commitment in Dialogue Douglas Walton,Erik C. W. Krabbe,1995-08-10 This book develops a logical analysis of dialogue in which two or more parties attempt to advance their own interests It includes a classification of the major types of dialogues and a discussion of several important informal fallacies The authors define the concept of commitment in a way that makes it useful in evaluating arguments In traditional logic a proposition is either true or false and that is the end of it In this new framework an arguer can be held to his or her commitments in some cases but in other cases he or she can retract them without violating any rule of the dialogue Commitment in Dialogue studies the conditions under which commitments should be held or may be retracted within an argument An extensive case study of a discussion in medical ethics is used to bring together two traditions or schools of thought that had not been integrated previously the rigorous Lorenzen school of formal logic and the more permissive Hamblin style dialogue It introduces these methods of evaluation and offers guidelines for analyzing the text of discourse The book could be used in both intermediate and advanced courses in informal logic argumentation and critical thinking but it is accessible to the reader with no background in these fields as well Each chapter is summarized and additional problems to be solved are presented

The New Dialectic Douglas N. Walton,1998 In this book Douglas Walton proposes a new and practical approach to argument analysis based on his theory that different standards for argument must apply in the case of different types of dialogue By refining and extending the existing formal classifications of dialogue Walton shows that each dialogue type be it inquiry negotiation or critical discussion has its own set of goals He goes on to demonstrate that an argument can best be evaluated in terms of its contribution positive or negative to the goals of the particular dialogue it is meant to further In this way he illustrates how argument can be brought into the service of many types of dialogue and thus has valuable uses that go well beyond the mere settling of disputes and differences
