Children's Literature in Action Sylvia M. Vardell,2019-06-14 This practitioner oriented introduction to literature for children ages 5-12 covers the latest trends, titles and tools for choosing the best books and materials as well as for planning fun and effective programs and activities. The third edition of Children's Literature in Action provides an activity oriented survey of children's literature for undergraduate and graduate students seeking licensure and degrees that will lead to careers working with children in schools and public libraries. Author Sylvia M. Vardell draws on her 30 years of university teaching and extensive familiarity with the major textbooks in the area of children's literature to deliver something different: a book that focuses specifically on the perspective and needs of the librarian with emphasis on practical action and library applications. Its contents address seven major genres: picture books, traditional tales, poetry, contemporary realistic fiction, historical fiction, fantasy and informational books. Each chapter includes practical applications for the educator who shares books with children and who develops literature based instruction. Chapters are enriched by author comments, collaborative activities, featured books, special topics and activities including selected awards and celebrations, historical connections, recommended resources, issues for discussion and assignment suggestions. This new edition incorporates the 2018 AASL National School Library Standards.

How to Teach Students Who Don't Look Like You Bonnie M. Davis,2012-07-18 Engage diverse learners in your classroom with culturally responsive instruction. How to Teach Students Who Don't Look Like You helps educators recognize the impact that culture has on the learning process. The term "diverse learners" encompasses a variety of student groups including homeless children, migrant children, English language learners, children experiencing gender identity issues, children with learning disabilities, and children with special needs. This revised second edition reflects the latest trends in education and includes new coverage of standards based culturally responsive lesson planning and instruction, differentiated instruction, RTI and the Common Core State Standards. Bonnie M. Davis helps all educators tailor instruction to their own unique student population. Reflect on their own cultures and how this shapes their views of the world. Cultivate a deeper understanding of race and racism in the U.S. Create culturally responsive instruction. Understand culture and how it affects learning. How to Teach Students Who Don't Look Like You provides crucial strategies to assist educators in addressing the needs of diverse learners and closing the achievement gap. This book fires up educators by speaking from the soul to reach the heart, from the research to engage the mind, and from the skillful hand to build the necessary expertise. Peggy Dickerson Professional Service Provider, Region XIII Texas Education Service Center, Austin, TX. The vignettes and classroom situations help the reader understand how race plays out in our society and in our classrooms. Dr. Davis takes on a very volatile topic and is able to engage the reader without offending. The examples, vignettes, cases and stories will hook the Amplifying the Curriculum Aída Walqui,George C. Bunch,Peggy Mueller,2025 Expanded and revised to include four entirely new chapters this thoroughly updated edition presents a model for how educators can design high quality challenging and supportive learning opportunities for multilingual learners Starting with the premise that conceptual analytic and language practices develop simultaneously as students engage in disciplinary learning the authors argue for instruction that amplifies rather than simplifies expectations concepts texts and learning tasks They offer clear guidance for designing well supported lessons with examples that demonstrate the approach in elementary and secondary classrooms across various subject areas math science language arts and social studies and contexts including newcomer classrooms and a new chapter written in Spanish on instruction in students home languages This popular resource guides teachers through the coherent design of tasks lessons and units that invite all students to engage in productive meaningful dialogic and intellectually engaging activity The book concludes with a discussion of where teachers might begin and how teacher educators professional development providers and educational leaders can support them in these efforts Book Features Provides discipline specific examples that are fully unpacked to guide teachers in creating ambitious and supportive learning tasks lessons and units of study Supports teachers in their own instructional design by providing guiding tenets a framework for designing lessons and multiple examples in different subject areas Offers a compelling argument supported with examples and guidelines that highlights the centrality of interactions in the development of student academic autonomy Provides practical guidance grounded in sociocultural ecological theory applied linguistics and theories about effective learning of disciplinary practices Includes real life lessons that have been successfully implemented in classrooms with multilingual learners at all levels of language proficiency The second edition of this fantastic resource for teachers of ELL classified students and other multilingual learners extends the authors original framework of effective ways to amplify highly engaging academic instruction across grade levels content areas and home languages Wayne E Wright associate dean for research graduate programs and faculty development Purdue University College of Education

Vocabulary Is Comprehension Laura Robb,2014-08-21 Here is a reading riddle What knowledge always precedes high level text comprehension and yet seldom is given sufficient instructional time The answer Word knowledge Our students can t understand texts without knowing what words mean It s that simple Meanwhile in our rush toward complex texts somehow we forget to put a new systematic vocabulary plan in place In Vocabulary Is Comprehension Laura Robb provides the instructional plan And just wait until you see the results Laura s plan takes just 10 to 15 minutes and much of it is spent in partner and independent work so this is no add on to squeeze in Even better all materials are included Each lesson features a student reproducible along with 50 pieces of short fiction nonfiction and poetry or if you prefer use your own text Here s how the plan works Day 1 You read aloud the short text and students discuss the selected words in their context Students work in pairs rereading the text to understand words and phrases and then share understandings as a class Days 2 a survey conducted by Instructor magazine named Laura as one of the nation s top twenty educators Currently in addition to her speaking and consulting she works part time in grades K 8
