Common Sense Aint Too Common:

We Ain't Too Bright, Are We? David Aragon, 2009-08-28 This book was written by a middle class construction worker welder mechanic ranch hand cowboy educator former president of a union local shop steward and US Marine who cares about Americans and America I wanted to let my feelings out as to what I see happening to this country For this to be happening in this country we couldnt be too bright When people forget to use common sense stop representing the people who voted them in all in the name off lobbyists special interest lies to be bought out to pass bills that spend money they dont have When this country is set up to bring hard times on hard working Americans for power and money America is in trouble When the news media sells out for high salaries to lie to Americans and not in their best interest its time you question what they are doing When Americans are willing to give their lives for this country and come back from overseas duty and are said to be enemies of the state along with people who still believe in religion the Constitution Bill of Rights Its time to start asking question of our leadership When our leaders tell illegal aliens to break our laws the laws they took an oath to defend its time we start looking for leaders who will up hold the laws Money doesnt make you rich but knowing right from wrong does as does being willing to stand for that your country makes you richer Our forefathers gave us that gift by doing just that stood up for this country with their blood Freedoms and the right to pursue happiest makes you rich because if you use it right youll find happiness Money doesnt always give you that Now the government thinks they know whats best for use But as Jefferson said when then government acts under the pretense of taking care of you lose freedoms and rights Now they are using backdoor tactics to take these rights away from you under the pretense they know what better for you then you do and theyll protect us from ourselves Why Because we just aint to bright are we I am richer than 95% of these rich people because I was blessed with a beautiful wife of 38 years two sons a new grandson and two great daughter in laws along with great families on both sides I have friends from Mexico to Canada because I traveled competing in the sport I love and skill does compete in I dont have to destroy peoples lives because of money and power My family has had its hard times as well as our good times but we were willing to work them out for the betterment of the whole All because of what our forefather taught us about freedoms We now have people in government calling us a dirty nation but look what this country has given them and yet they belittle it to other countries for their interest with no pride in what this country has done to make the world a better place They point fingers while they are doing the same thing under the cover of their pointed fingers and Americans cant see for the words and promises and lies All this because of smooth talking salespeople Wake up before they spend you and your grand kids into a debt they never recover from Wake up before the end of this country as we know it and want to pass on to our future is gone because of people wanting an elite ruling class They are willing to divide this country with an old war tactic of divide and conquer by using hate and prejudice to get the job done with not caring about the aftermath of what they have done Thats not leadership but greed All we have to do to change for the better is get smart find Americans who believe in Americans and America and vote them in Not Politicians but Americans with common sense and desire to made this once great country Great Again Vote in 2010 for true change by voting us out of debt by voting our congress out Choices That Change Lives Hal Urban,2006-01-03 Hal Urban author of the much loved bestsellers Life's Greatest Lessons and Positive Words Powerful Results gives us his third book of inspirational and practical wisdom on leading a more meaningful and more joyful life With Choices That Change Lives Hal reminds us that our lives are the result of our choices and the most important choices we make become our character traits the ones that lead to fulfillment and peace of mind He illuminates fifteen character traits that help us more fully develop our capacity to live rich and rewarding lives He assures us that it's never too late to change to break the chains of self defeating attitudes and habits and challenges us to dig a little deeper to grow in such qualities as humility patience empathy and courage and to renew ourselves daily 100 Things I Hate/love about Dentistry Evelyn Teague Samuel,2013 What happens when the dream finally comes true Enduring years and years of careful planning and hard work to become a dentist and small business owner you finish school pass the boards and feel ready to conquer the world Eager to provide quality care and help patients you create your dream practice You build it so the patients will come Right Finding yourself in the school of hard knocks and learning by trial and error you quickly realize that you do not have a clue about running a business No one warned you it would be like this Written by a dentist 100 Things I HATE Love About Dentistry is the culmination of years in private practice and utilizes real life situations to provide the answers to questions you never knew to ask Dr Samuel cleverly uses sarcasm and humor to deliver pearls of wisdom that benefit any small business owner The Methodist Temperance Magazine George Maunders,Charles Garrett,Thomas Bowman Stephenson,1884 It Ain't Necessarily So - When Scripture and Tradition Collide Dale Austin,2017-05-10 A line from the song It Ain't Necessarily So from the Gershwin brothers play Porgy and Bess tells us that the things that you're liable to read in the Bible it ain't necessarily so While we would like to take issue with that comment this book of the same title as the song explores the validity of such a seemingly heretical statement But it isn't what we read so much as how we interpret those words that ain't necessarily so While the words are accurate sometimes our understanding can be a bit off track In this work Pastor Austin challenges the reader to explore the relationship between Scripture and Tradition in our lives and in our faith formation Much of what we claim to believe about the Scriptures is actually based more on our Traditions than we wish to acknowledge We have been taught by previous generations what the Scriptures are saying to us This becomes a significant part of our individual Tradition the sum total of what we believe the Scriptures to say and how they compel us to act Because we trust those ancestors not to lead us astray we don't question this Tradition Perhaps we should One of the primary assertions of this work is that Tradition trumps Truth We don't intend for it to be so but often what we think we are reading in the Scriptures is tainted by years of Tradition and the teaching of the Church We don't question what we've been taught it is the Truth Sometimes however that truth is slightly skewed by our life experiences and teachings When this happens

Scripture often yields to our own Tradition without our awareness that this is happening This book explores the possibility that when Tradition trumps Truth there might be more than one way of understanding the Scriptures particularly when we recognize how our truth has been compromised by years of tradition and practice This is not to say that we have been wrong for all of these years But these chapters are written in the hopes of spurring further discussion into the many layers in which the Scriptures are given to us and perhaps lead us to gaining new insights and appreciation for the depths of our faith not to replace our previous convictions unless necessary but to augment them If You Died Today, What Would You Want Your Child to Know T. J. Freeman, 2005-01-01 Tomorrow is not promised to any of us We have heard that phrase time and time again some of us leave our children money and a will with warm words but is that enough I don't think so This book is my goodbye to my daughter If I died right now then this is what I want my daughter to know about me the situation between her mom and I as well as life I am her father and there is much she should know So much I also wrote this book for any child who wants knowledge the fundamentals The rules in this book never change This book is for all youth and parents as well as my daughter I hope you can appreciate the humor in it as well as the lessons throughout Tomorrow is not promised to any of us and children are the future of this world If you died today what would you want your child to know Illinois Technograph, 1925 Rob the Ranger Herbert Strang, 1907 The Brown Book for Boys Herbert Strang, 1921 A collection of short stories for boys Plays of Negro Life Alain Locke, Thomas Montgomery Gregory, 1927 The drama of negro life is developing primarily because a native American drama is in process of evolution Thus although it heralds the awakening of the dormant dramatic gifts of the Negro folk temperament and has meant the phenomenal rise within a decade's span of a Negro drama and a possible Negro Theatre the significance is if anything more national than racial For pioneering genius in the development of the native American drama such as Eugene O'Neill, Ridgley Torrence and Paul Green now sees and recognizes the dramatically undeveloped potentialities of Negro life and folkways as a promising province of native idioms and source materials in which a developing national drama can find distinctive new themes characteristic and typical situations authentic atmosphere The growing number of successful and representative plays of this type form a valuable and significant contribution to the theatre of today and open intriguing and fascinating possibilities for the theatre of tomorrow Introduction The School News and Practical Educator, 1920 Dental Outlook, 1929 Rural Living, 1995-10 The Moshico Log, 1919 The New Priest in Conception Bay Robert Lowell, 1889 National Hardware Bulletin, 1925 GRIT 4 LIFE David Douglas, The book is a daily devotion for those who wish to change the relationship they have with their life It was originally designed for use within an addiction recovery facility We found that many others were improving the quality of their life through these God-inspired devotions They are simply written and easy to understand therefore easily applied to your life If we allow God into our lives He will help us with our Relationships Living in God's will for our lives gives us the Integrity to walk through life with our head held high And last but not least we need to find the Truth We must put in the work to find the Truth and stop accepting what the world tells us We can use this G R I T FILTER to help us on the journey of changing the relationship we have with our lives By asking four simple questions we can avoid many of the potholes of life Those four questions are Have I invited God into my decision process How will my decision affect my Relationships What will my decision do to my Integrity Have I done the research and found the Truth before I react Living a life with G R I T will give you joy as you Transform the relationship you have with your life If you believe you have a terrible life it will be terrible If you work to change your outlook and become grateful for what you have every day becomes a blessing It is my sincere hope that these devotional messages will be a blessing to you as you start to live with G R I T
