Conversations With Fritzie:

Conversations with Fritzie Tony Serritella, 2014-01-29 This is a story about the beginning of an unusual relationship between a dog and his owner Tony who had previously lost their ten year old schnauzer suddenly on an operating table The grieving period lasted several months and then the journey began Gail went on the computer and looked for sites that carried homeless dogs She came across the picture of an eight month old schnauzer that weighed only six pounds a pathetic looking puppy which was abused by his owner She called to Tony to take a look and wanted to go see this dog Shrugging his shoulders Tony agreed to take the ride from Chicago to Indianapolis to see the puppy The three hour journey took five hours because of a snow storm but they finally connected with the two nurses that ran the shelter meeting at a gas station Tony brought the three hundred dollars as instructed in case they wanted the dog They met the puppy through the car window and fell in love with her She was a lovable miniature Schnauzer and Gail named her Fritzie At home Fritzie got acquainted with Rudy a previously stray cat Rudy was a lost Russian Blue four paw declaw who was given his name because he was brought home on 9 11 They immediately connected in a playful way most of the time Tony and Fritzie went for many walks together and one morning he heard sounds coming from Fritzie At first Tony didn't know what was happening but responding to the noises he noticed that Fritzie's ears were moving like she understood what Tony was thinking Her sounds then became words and it took off from there with storytelling on both their sides This was the beginning that led to many Conversations with Fritzie

Women on the Edge Corinne H. Dale, 2018-10-24 This collection of essays explores the intertwining social conditions of ethnicity and gender as they are represented in short stories by contemporary American women The introduction to the collection explains the theoretical understanding of gender and ethnicity as social constructions that provide a context for individual experience The collection brings together analyses of short stories that focus on major ethnic cultures in the United States Mexican American Puerto Rican Japanese American Asian American African American Jewish American white Protestant American and Native American Each essay testifies to the struggles of women within patriarchal cultures in America and each explores how different ethnic identities set the terms of these gender struggles The essays also reveal the complications of other important social issues such as class sexual preference and religion Individually each essay contributes a significant new analysis of a short story or collection by an important contemporary American writer Together the essays indicate the complexity and significance of this cultural approach to women's fiction demonstrate the critical theories that are currently developing in the fields of gender and ethnic studies and suggest that neither ethnicity nor gender can legitimately be considered alone
