The 1964 New York Comicon J. Ballmann, 2016-03-15

THE 1964 NEW YORK COMICON THE TRUE STORY BEHIND THE WORLD'S FIRST COMIC CONVENTION tells the greatest story never told: the story of the first comic con ever held. This event was never reported by any radio channel, TV station, magazine, or newspaper. Bits and pieces of the story can be found in old fanzines, but until now the majority of this story has only existed in the memories of the original 56 attendees of the show. Now, at last, for the first time, the full story of the world's first comic book convention is finally told. The story of the 1964 New York Comicon is the story of Bernie Bubnis, Ron Fradkin, Art Tripp, and Ethan Roberts. Four boys who, like an early 1960s Kirby kid gang of boy commandoes, took Comic Fandom by storm by writing and publishing their own fanzines, pillaging used book stores and flea markets for back issue comics, visiting the offices of Marvel, DC, and Gold Key Comics, and meeting with Jack Kirby, Steve Ditko, Stan Lee, Julius Schwartz, Bill Harris, Flo Steinberg, Curt Swan, Mike Sekowsky, Don Heck, Gil Kane, and Joe Giella. Tired of hearing about other fans' failed attempts to stage a convention for years, these four boys took it upon themselves to make a convention happen. They pooled their resources and used their contacts with the comic professionals they knew to get them to attend and donate door prizes that included stacks of original art pages. They even convinced Spider-Man artist Steve Ditko to attend the con, and to this day, it is the only con Steve Ditko has ever attended. Find out why. This book tells the stories of the first comic collectors ever and how they traveled from all over the country and converged on New York City on that hot summer day in July 1964 to attend this historic event. All the earliest known comic dealers attended that day, including Howard Rogofsky, Bill Thailing, Claude Held, Phil Seuling, Doug Berman, Don Foote, Marc Nadel, Malcolm Willits, and Tom Wilson. 34 pages of their original price lists from 1964 are reprinted to show what comics were for sale that day and what they were selling for. This book presents a complete blow-by-blow account of the convention in the attendees' own words. It includes over 300 photographs and 45 pages of biographical information about this amazing group of 56 original attendees, that includes a fifteen-year-old future GAME OF THRONES writer George R.R. Martin, the world-famous radio host Paul Gambaccini, and a young Len Wein, co-creator of Wolverine and Swamp Thing, to name just a few of the comic book fans and who attended the con. Research for this book includes dozens of interviews with original attendees and all four organizers as well as information mined from complete runs of old 1960s comic book fanzines such as The Rocket's Blast Alter Ego The Comicollector The Comic Reader Jeddak Comic Art Masquerader Hero Yancy Street Journal and more. Featured in this book are complete and unedited early 1960s interviews with Steve Ditko Jack Kirby Julius Schwartz Mike Sekowsky Joe Giella and Gold Key editor Bill Harris. Also included is long lost art by Steve Ditko Jack Kirby and Curt Swan. In addition this book contains the only published art ever drawn by George R R Martin along with the first three writings he ever published and they are each reprinted in their entirety. A digitally restored copy of the complete 1964 New York Comicon program booklet is reprinted in its entirety as well for the first time since 1964. Also reprinted in their entirety are Progress Report 1 8 pages and Progress Report 2 2 pages and all ads for the convention. The story of early comic book fans struggle to organize their first comic convention is a tale of epic proportions one that is long overdue to be told for it is Comic Fandom's greatest story. And now for the first time comic fans everywhere can read about the convention that started it all the 1964 New York Comicon.
