Gary Hoppenstand, 1998 This unique anthology offers the best of popular fiction 45 short stories and one short novel that highlight the major genres of popular writing including horror fiction romance science fiction detective stories and adventure Supporting this definitive collection of stories are ten non fiction essays written by well known authors discussing some of the key elements for writing in each genre As American as Mom, Baseball, and Apple Pie Linda J. Holland-Toll, 2001

This book does nothing less than redefine the very genre of horror fiction calling into question the usual conventions motifs and elements Unlike many critics of this genre Linda Holland Toll sees dis affirmative horror fiction acting neither to soothe fears nor reduce them to the vicarious thrills n chills mode but as intensifying the fears inherent in everyday life

A Literary Symbiosis Hazel Pierce, 1983-11-16 A Literary Symbiosis studies the merger of science fiction fantasy and mystery fiction from historical and critical perspectives Pierce examines the problems and expectations raised by the various literary labels particularly as regards definition theme conventions stock characters and setting While she admits the difficulties inherent in merging idea oriented speculative science fiction with the situation specific and present time oriented mystery story she argues that the two genres have much in common The book examines critically the elements of mystery fiction which have been integrated with varying degrees of success into science fiction fantasy This evaluation focuses on individual authors and novels or short stories which contributed to the original modes and to their synthesis The Crane Bag, 1980
