Close Call Mark Loring Wheeler:

Close Call Mark Loring Wheeler, 2015-11-30 Have you ever had a harrowing or nerve wracking experience and then thought to yourself when it was all over Whew That was a close call Sure you have We all have Close calls happen every day to people just like you and me But think for a moment Have you ever wondered why Have you chosen to view these events as divine orchestrations over time or have you simply dismissed them as random isolated occurrences Did you think to thank God when you were eventually spared or when a disaster threatening the safety or welfare of others was averted I mean really thank God Did you say with conviction in your heart Thanks be to God or merely blurt out with a sigh of relief Thank God thats over Or were you so wrapped up in the excitement of the event that you never even considered Gods involvement For many of us the latter hits the nail on the head We narrowly escape breathe sighs of relief consider ourselves lucky and press on Rarely if ever do we seem to view the close calls in our lives as divinely orchestrated providential experiences with specific purposes and eternal implications In this deeply personal and down to earth book Mark Loring Wheeler through a series of incredibly vivid and sometimes heart wrenching accounts of amazing close calls makes a compelling case that the events in our lives are not just random occurrences but rather divinely orchestrated experiences through which God reshapes and prepares us for a much greater purpose
