Two Easy Steps Glen Lee Roberts,2014-09-28 The author writes from a position of unique experience That day June 21 2013 I had walked into the US Embassy an American Citizen and walked out without any nationality Stateless an Earthling A real life man without a country He brings the requirements and process of renouncing U S Citizenship down to earth He takes the politics confusion and fear out of the process After reading this book you'll know exactly what you need to do and how to do it You'll also be amazed at how quick and easy it is Included are copies of all of the government forms he filed in the process as well as parts of the U S State Department's Foreign Affairs Manual which express the process from the government's viewpoint Of course a copy of his Certificate of Loss of Nationality of the United States CLN is also included signed sealed and stamped by U S government authorities He cannot help you decide if you should renounce your citizenship or not He takes you through the process so you can exercise your rights if you decide to You too will be able to walk into a U S Embassy as an American and leave as a foreigner With one signature step outside of all the politics and drama associated with the United States Remember all rights and privileges and all duties and allegiance you had as an American are gone You've been born again Why renounce your U S Citizenship While it seems that a large portion of the world's population wants to move to the United States and become a citizen there there is a movement of another kind too As throughout the history of the United States some Americans chose to leave the country and renounce their citizenship. That process based on my personal experiences is straightforward and simple. One aspect of the process that is completely irrelevant is the question Why. It is not asked and if answered not relevant to the process. It is simply your right to renounce and the choice is yours alone to make. As a practical matter everyone that learns of your decision will ask you why. For me the short answer is simply that I outgrew the United States. The long answer would start with something along the lines of For roughly 20 years basically my entire adult life in the United States I was in conflict. My conflict was with every nature of authority local state corporate prestigious universities as well as at a federal level including the CIA the FBI the U.S. Military and even the President of the United States. The conflict was a result of my perspectives on privacy surveillance free of information and related topics. Really it was my expression of my viewpoints on those topics which was the conflict. Completing the long answer would return me to that era of conflict and bring the fear and anger back to myself as well as inflict it on you. Life offers much more interesting adventures and I am off to explore them now.
