Oregon State Library,1907 Otherworlds Federico Campagna,2025-06-26 What can survive the end of the world In Otherworlds philosopher Federico Campagna constructs extraordinary stories and alternative histories of the Mediterranean nexus of migrations and odysseys ruins and romances to depict a world in which the imagination is the only engine of survival Chapter by chapter Campagna chronicles the existential challenges posed by history and the inventive and radical responses of people facing the ruin of their world From the earliest myths with which the inhabitants of the kingdoms around the Mediterranean constructed a shared social reality the stories of the Mediterranean are dominated by cataclysm and collapse in which fugitive fragments become the building blocks of resilience and renewal Alexander the Great s cataclysmic conquests seed a cycle of existential romances pagan philosophers fleeing the fall of Rome give rise to new visions of reality translators across the Islamic world Iberia and Italy use stories to bridge the gap between cultures at war and pirates slaves renegades and publishers expand the imaginative horizons of human possibility through modernity and beyond In Campagna's lyrical novel and expansive work part history part philosophy part love letter to a heritage of seasonal migration and searches for belonging the challenges of disintegration and destruction are time and again met with the creation of new and radical realities As rich and various as the philosophy myths literature and art of the Mediterranean itself Otherworlds traces the tales of these attempts to reinvent the world and reveals how at the most dramatic and decisive junctures of Mediterranean history it was the ability to set sail for these other worlds which prevailed
