

EUROPEAN CHANGING WAYS OF LIFE

For several years now the most significant social changes in Europe have been related to the question of:

the changing ways of life in our cities

- the urban sprawl and the movement of people from the city to the suburbs
- the decline in the birth rate
- the growth of the population
- the concentration of people in large cities and the decline in the rural areas

the need to live in the countryside and the growth of the rural areas

- the growth of the population
- the growth of the birth rate
- the growth of the rural areas

the most significant changes are:

- the growth of the population in rural areas
- the growth of the birth rate

Indirectly these changes have led to changes in the way of life in the European Union.

- the urban sprawl has led to:
 - the growth of the population

- the growth of the population in rural areas
- the growth of the birth rate

- the growth of the population in rural areas
- the growth of the birth rate

- the growth of the population in rural areas
