The Routledge Research Companion to Popular Romance Fiction Jayashree Kamblé, Eric Murphy, Selinger, Hsu-Ming Teo, 2020-08-11 Popular romance fiction constitutes the largest segment of the global book market. Bringing together an international group of scholars, The Routledge Research Companion to Popular Romance Fiction offers a ground-breaking exploration of this global genre and its remarkable readership. In recognition of the diversity of the form, the Companion provides a history of the genre, an overview of disciplinary approaches to studying romance fiction and critical analyses of important subgenres, themes and topics. It also highlights new and understudied avenues of inquiry for future research in this vibrant and still emerging field. The first systematic, comprehensive resource on romance fiction, this Companion will be invaluable to students and scholars and accessible to romance readers.

Girls' Series Fiction and American Popular Culture LuElla D'Amico, 2016-03-01 Girls' Series Fiction and American Popular Culture examines the ways in which young female heroines in American series fiction have undergone dramatic changes in the past 150 years. Changes which have both reflected and modeled standards of behavior for America's tweens and teen girls. Though series books are often derided for lacking in imagination and literary potency, that the majority of American girls have been exposed to girls' series in some form, whether through books, television or other media, suggests that this genre needs to be studied further and that the development of the heroines that girls read about have created an impact that is worthy of a fresh critical lens. Thus this collection explores how series books have influenced and shaped popular American culture and, in doing so, girls' everyday experiences from the mid-nineteenth century until now. The collection interrogates the cultural work that is performed through the series genre, contemplating the messages these books relay about subjects including race, class, gender, education, family, romance and friendship, and it examines the trajectory of girl fiction within such contexts as material culture, geopolitics, socioeconomics and feminism.

Differences in Common Joana Sabadell-Nieto, Marta Segarra, 2014-05-10 Differences in Common engages in the ongoing debate on community, focusing on its philosophical and political aspects through a gendered perspective. It explores the subversive and enriching potential of the concept of community as seen from the perspective of heterogeneity and distance and not from homogeneity and fused adhesions. This theoretical reflection is in most of the essays included here based on the analysis of literary and filmic texts which, due to their irreducible singularity, teach us to think without being tied or needing to resort to commonplaces. Philosophers such as Arendt, Blanchot, Foucault, Agamben or Derrida have made seminal reflections on community, often inspired by contemporary historical events and sometimes questioning the term itself. More recently, thinkers like Judith Butler, Gayatri Spivak or Rada Ivekovic included in this volume are essays by all three have emphasized the gender bias in the debate, also problematizing the notion of community. Most of the essays gathered in Differences in Common conceive community not as the affirmation of several properties which would unite us to other similar individuals, but as the expropriation of ourselves. Esposito, in an intimate diaspora Community does not fill the gap between subjects but places itself in this gap or void This conception stresses the subject s vulnerability a topic which is also central to this volume The body of community is thus opened by a wound Cixous which exposes us to the contagion of otherness The essays collected here reflect on different topics related to these issues such as gender and nation nationalism internationalism transnationalism nationalism s naturalization of citizenship and the exclusion of women from citizenship the violent consequences of a gendered nation on women s bodies gendering community preservation of difference s within the community bodily vulnerability and new politics community and mourning community and the politics of memory fiction historical truth and fake documentary love relationality and community interpretive communities and virtual communities on the Web among others Joana Sabadell Nieto is Professor of Contemporary Spanish Literature Gender and Feminist Studies at Hamilton College USA and Researcher at the Center for Women and Literature at the University of Barcelona Marta Segarra is Professor of French and Francophone literature and Gender Studies at the University of Barcelona Spain Director of the UNESCO Chair Women Development and Cultures and co founder and director of the Center for Women and Literature 2003 2012
