Literature and Social Media Bronwen Thomas, 2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context What

Readers Do Beth Driscoll, 2024-02-21 Shining a spotlight on everyday readers of the 21st century Beth Driscoll explores how contemporary readers of Anglophone fiction interact with the book industry digital environments and each other We live in an era when book clubs bibliomemoirs Bookstagram and BookTok are as valuable to some readers as solitary reading moments The product of nearly two decades of qualitative research into readers and reading culture What Readers Do examines reading through three dimensions aesthetic conduct moral conduct and self care to show how readers intertwine private and social behaviors and both reinforce and oppose the structures of capitalism Analyzing reading as a post digital practice that is a synthesis of both print and digital modes and on and offline behaviors Driscoll presents a methodology for studying readers that connects book history literary studies sociology and actor network theory Arguing for the vitality agency and creativity of readers this book sheds light on how we read now and on how much more readers do than just read
