Forum Linguisticum ,1979 Memes in Frame-Semantic Perspective Niels Brause, 2017-03-07 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1.3 University of Duisburg Essen Department of Anglophone Studies language English abstract One cannot escape them because they are everywhere There is scarcely a day without one coming across them They are a humorous picture a witty message or a funny video you find on the internet They are in our newsfeed on our message boards or in personal messages from our friends These sources of entertainment seem to be by now an important element of today's web society and there is a huge number of image boards like 9gag.com or reddit.com which have no other purpose than satisfying our needs for these sources of entertainment Even a growing number of newspapers have started to include this type of content in their online platforms A term that is often used to describe this accumulation of different visual entities is the term memes but this term is vague and ambiguous and it does not specifically say what kind of phenomena are included in it This bachelor thesis is an attempt to establish these phenomena labelled as memes as valuable objects for linguistic studies It will glance at several linguistic theories and check their relevance for analysing image macros as representatives for memes in general Finally it will analyse image macros by using the frame semantic framework thus integrating the former accomplished insights in one theoretic framework with only a few central terms This will support the thesis that frame

semantics is capable of describing the patterns of encyclopaedic knowledge needed in order to understand complex bimodal entities

The Hidden Psychology of Social Networks: How Brands Create Authentic Engagement by Understanding What Motivates Us Joe Federer, 2020-09-15 From the former Head of Brand Strategy at Reddit comes a proven and thought provoking approach to the digital economy and how brands can create authentic engagement that is rooted in the fundamental motivations behind human psychology Leading marketing practitioner and thought leader Joe Federer draws on evolutionary biology anthropology neuroanatomy and psychology as well as more than a decade of hands on experience to explain why people act so differently in various online spaces and what they are seeking from participating in each one With a framework based on Freud's Id Ego and Superego model of the human psyche he demonstrates how the internet is a digital reflection of the collective human psyche and how different social networks correspond to different mindsets platforms like Reddit to the unfiltered Id Facebook and Twitter to the managed Ego and Instagram to the ideal Superego In the same way you behave differently when you're home alone out with friends communicating with family or interacting with coworkers people act and express themselves differently in these various online spaces Context matters Understanding this will enable you to develop and execute effective engagement strategies to reach your target audiences on each social network Learn how to create content that drives sharing and word of mouth how brands can fit natively into different types of social channels how to balance branded social presences across different networks why authenticity will only grow in importance to consumers Fascinating and deeply compelling The Hidden Psychology of Social Networks will equip you to make vastly more efficient use of your media buys establish more thoughtful strategies develop better creative and in the end deliver more effective marketing that provides value
