Extremely Online Taylor Lorenz, 2023-10-03 A NATIONAL BESTSELLER Acclaimed reporter Taylor Lorenz founder of User Magazine and host of the Power User podcast presents an enlightening history Associated Press of the internet revealing how online influence and the creators who amass it have reshaped our world online and off For over a decade Taylor Lorenz has been the authority on internet culture documenting its far-reaching effects on all corners of our lives Her reporting is serious yet entertaining and illuminates deep truths about ourselves and the lives we create online In her debut book Extremely Online she reveals how online influence came to upend the world demolishing traditional barriers and creating whole new sectors of the economy Lorenz shows this phenomenon to be one of the most disruptive changes in modern capitalism By tracing how the internet has changed what we want and how we go about getting it Lorenz unearths how social platforms power users radically altered our expectations of content connection purchasing and power Lorenz documents how moms who started blogging were among the first to monetize their personal brands online how bored teens who began posting selfie videos reinvented fame as we know it and how young creators on TikTok are leveraging opportunities to opt out of the traditional career pipeline It's the real social history of the internet Emerging seemingly out of nowhere these shifts in how we use the internet seem easy to dismiss as fads However these social and economic transformations have resulted in a digital dynamic so unappreciated and insurgent that it ultimately created new approaches to work entertainment fame and ambition in the 21st century Extremely Online is the terrific The New York Times Book Review inside untold story of what we have done to the internet and what it has done to us

Make / Believe John Hartley, 2025-01-23 This book illustrates that mediated popular culture and science-based knowledge systems entangled and compromised as both have become are still a robust crucible for system change for the future when they combine forces Planetary crises require responses from everyone This means that collective action is not simply a scientific or political problem It is a problem of culture and media But modern politics journalism and science were not designed for global climate action They've divided humans into competitive and often hostile we and they groups Identity news and knowledge are all weaponized Culture makes groups groups make knowledge and knowledge makes enemies What can be done to prevent global conflict and the drift to war Make Believe turns to popular culture and social media to argue for an alternative storyline While the Great Powers are making new enemies emergent classes led by children are using planetary connectivity to make new worlds A digital planet generates new kinds of strategic stories for pan human action based on difference intersectionality and cooperation for a sustainable Earth system Make Believe shows how alternatives to the Great Game of global contestation are gathering strength in unlikely places among women children lifestyle and pop culture Popular digital media literacy is now a prerequisite for the remediation of the planet

The Meaning of Myth in Uncertain Times Evelien Bracke, 2025-12-29 This book examines how ancient mythology forms part of the stories we tell ourselves about today's uncertain times not only in popular culture but also in sociocultural and political debates It particularly explores the ways in which classical myths shape how our modern secular societies think about the interconnected geopolitical technological and ecological issues we are facing and our potential futures Classical myths like those of Achilles Medea and Odysseus are everywhere from films and novels to social media and games But how and why are we still fascinated with them particularly now Can these strange and often painful stories from societies so radically different from our own offer us genuine insights today This expanded English edition of Evelien Bracke's award winning Dutch book Leidraad door het labirint explores how and why Greek and Roman myths despite their ancient origins are surprisingly meaningful in these times of uncertainty Bracke offers a contextualization and literary analysis of classical mythology looking at both texts and visual media This allows readers to gain a better understanding of how people draw inspiration from the past in their attempt to create a better future and how these stories provide both collective and individual guidance in navigating the turbulent 21st century The Meaning of Myth in Uncertain Times is suitable for students scholars teachers and general readers interested in mythology and ancient Greek and Roman history and culture providing insights that are relevant to the challenges we all face today

Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture

Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature sociology media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries

Pillow Talk vs. TikTok ANANT RAM BOSS, 2025-09-16 Pillow Talk vs TikTok Why Couples Sleep with Phones More than Each Other and What to Do About It In a world where screens glow brighter than the moonlight love stories are no longer whispered between pillows but typed between notifications This book is not just about mobiles it is about us about how love laughter and even silence have been stolen by a buzzing rectangle in our palms Meet Arjun and Rhea a couple who once shared midnight secrets under warm blankets Now they share reels and memes lying back to back scrolling endlessly as if tomorrow depends on their For You page Rhea laughs at a cat video Arjun chuckles at a football meme and both forget that the person lying right beside them is the best story they ll ever have But this isn t a tale of blame It s a mirror held up with humour heart and a pinch of let s fix this mess together Through comic misadventures like when Arjun nearly proposes to Rhea by accident on a WhatsApp group and tender revelations when Rhea realises she misses Arjun s real smile more than his emojis this book explores how modern love is being rewritten one scroll at a time Here you ll find Funny yet painfully true stories of how mobiles sneak into our bedrooms playgrounds and even dinner plates Habits and small shifts that couples and families can adopt to reclaim intimacy like a ten minute phone free cuddle rule before bed Relatable characters whose everyday struggles mirror our own because who hasn t checked their phone while pretending to listen Emotional insights into what we truly crave connection attention and the feeling of being seen beyond the glow of a screen Pillow Talk vs TikTok is a witty heartfelt reminder that relationships don t run on Wi Fi they run on presence It asks when was the last time you looked into your partner s eyes instead of your notifications When was the last time silence felt comfortable not awkward This book doesn t tell you to throw your phone away Instead it invites you to laugh cry and rediscover the art of being with each other in the most human cinematic and yes sometimes hilariously messy way possible Because love unlike TikTok doesn t need an algorithm to go viral
