PROBING POPULISM IN THE PHILIPPINES , In 2018 the International Center for Innovation Transformation and Excellence in Governance INCITEGov and the De La Salle University Jesse M Robredo Institute of Governance DLSU JRIG both members of the Asia Democracy Research Network ADRN came up with two reports that examined the case of populism in the Philippines INCITEGov focused on civil society s responses to President Duterte s populist leadership while JRIG on the utilization of social media for populist agenda The two papers are part of ADRN s State of Democracy in Asia SODA Report The findings of the two reports were presented and validated during the National Consultation on Populism in the Philippines a multi sectoral forum organized by INCITEGov and JRIG on Sept 13 2018 The activity also aimed to analyze the challenges posed by populism and identify possible action points expand the scope of action oriented and policy driven research and forge linkages among democracy practitioners in promoting consolidating and deepening democracy This publication contains the proceedings of the forum and is divided into three sessions 1 Understanding Populism in the Philippines 2 Populism and Social Media and 3 Populism and Civil Society The first session explores the concept of populism using the economic and gender lenses and from the perspective of the populist public JRIG and INCITEGov s reports were presented in the second and third sessions respectively each followed by further insights from a panel of reactors and an open forum

Women in Asia: Women and political power Louise P. Edwards,Mina Roces,2009 Volume III Health and Sexuality brings together the best and most influential scholarship on contentious themes such as the increasing imbalance in sex ratios in the region as a result of female infanticide sex selective abortions and the kidnapping of wives Research gathered in this volume also covers reproductive health violence against women e g female genital mutilation dowry burnings and honour killings same sex attraction and diverse gender identity and medicine and health care including work on traditional medicine and mental health problems specific to women in the region such as the high suicide rates in China and South Asia The material collected in Volume IV Constructions of the Feminine focuses on women in the family e g gendered role expectations women in religion Western perceptions of Asian women e g stereotypes of passivity women in the arts and official discourses on the feminine such as the promotion by Asian governments of gender roles Women in Asia is fully indexed and each of the four volumes has a comprehensive introduction newly written by the editors which provides extended reading lists and places the material in its historical and intellectual context It is an essential work of reference and is destined to be valued by scholars and students as well as policy makers and community activists as a vital one stop research resource Women, Power, and Kinship Politics Mina Roces,1998-05-26 Politics in the Philippines is not male dominated but gendered This book examines how women hold power unofficially through their kinship ties with male politicians Examining the perspectives of local concepts of power the author explores gender and power in post war Philippines and characterizes kinship politics embedded in the predominate political culture Women s power is a site where the conflict between the two discourses of kinship politics and modern nationalist values is daily contested Unofficial women s power is resourced through kinship politics but because it is exercised behind the scenes it makes women vulnerable to criticisms that they are manipulative or scheming wielding power that is illegal undemocratic anti nationalist and unaccountable But at the other end of the equation women s crusades against graft and corruption is doubly legitimized through both the modern discursive prioritizing of the nation state and through women s traditional gendered roles as moral guardians This book will be of interest to scholars and students in Philippine studies Southeast Asian history gender studies women and power in Asia and feminist studies
