Our Shared Storm Andrew Dana

Hudson, 2022-04-05 Through speculative fiction five interlocking novelettes explore the possible realities of our climate future What is the future of our climate Given that our summers now regularly feature Arctic heat waves and wildfire blood skies polar vortex winters that reach all the way down to Texas and 100 year storms that hit every few months it may seem that catastrophe is a done deal As grim as things are however we still have options Combining fiction and nonfiction and employing speculative tools for scholarly purposes Our Shared Storm explores not just one potential climate future but five possible outcomes dependent upon our actions today Written by speculative fiction writer and sustainability researcher Andrew Dana Hudson Our Shared Storm features five overlapping fictions to employ a futurist technique called scenarios thinking Rather than try to predict how history will unfold picking one out of many unpredictable and contingent branching paths it instead creates a set of futures that represent major trends or counterposed possibilities based on a set of climate modeling scenarios known as the Shared Socioeconomic Pathways SSPs The setting is the year 2054 during the Conference of the Parties global climate negotiations a k a The COP in Buenos Aires Argentina Each story features a common cast of characters but with events unfolding differently for them and human society in each alternate universe These five scenarios highlight the political economic and cultural possibilities of futures where investments in climate adaptation and mitigation promised today have been successfully completed kicked down the road or abandoned altogether From harrowing to hopeful these stories highlight the choices we must make to stabilize the planet Our Shared Storm is an experiment in deploying practice based research methods to explore the opportunities and challenges of using climate fiction to engage scientific and academic frameworks

The Near Future in 21st Century Fiction David Sergeant, 2022-12-22

Explores contemporary fiction set in the near future to shed new light on our culture s relationship to the Anthropocene Fire and Snow Marc DiPaolo, 2018-07-11 Fellow Inklings J R R Tolkien and C S Lewis may have belonged to different branches of Christianity but they both made use of a faith based environmentalist ethic to counter the mid twentieth century s triple threats of fascism utilitarianism and industrial capitalism In Fire and Snow Marc DiPaolo explores how the apocalyptic fantasy tropes and Christian environmental ethics of the Middle earth and Narnia sagas have been adapted by a variety of recent writers and filmmakers of climate fiction a growing literary and cinematic genre that grapples with the real world concerns of climate change endless wars and fascism as well as the role religion plays in easing or escalating these apocalyptic level crises Among the many other well known climate fiction narratives examined in these pages are Game of Thrones The Hunger Games The Handmaid s Tale Mad Max and Doctor Who Although the authors of these works stake out ideological territory that differs from Tolkien s and Lewis s DiPaolo argues that they nevertheless mirror their predecessors ecological concerns The Christians Jews atheists and agnostics who penned these works agree that we all need to put aside our cultural differences and transcend our personal socioeconomic circumstances to work together to save the environment Taken together these works of climate fiction model various ways in which a deep ecological solidarity might be achieved across a broad ideological and cultural spectrum This book is freely available in an open access edition thanks to Knowledge Unlatched an initiative that provides libraries and institutions with a centralized platform to support OA collections and from leading publishing houses and OA initiatives Learn more at the Knowledge Unlatched website at <https://www.knowledgeunlatched.org> and access the book online at the SUNY Open Access Repository at <http://hdl.handle.net/20.500.12648/7137>

The Routledge Handbook of Fiction and Belief Alison James, Akihiro Kubo, Françoise Lavocat, 2023-12-22 The Routledge Handbook of Fiction and Belief offers a fresh reevaluation of the relationship between fiction and belief surveying key debates and perspectives from a range of disciplines including narrative and cultural studies science religion and politics This volume draws on global cutting edge research and theory to investigate the historically variable understandings of fictionality and allows readers to grasp the role of fictions in our understanding of the world This interdisciplinary approach provides a thorough introduction to the fundamental themes of Theoretical and Philosophical Perspectives on Fiction Fiction Fact and Science Social Effects and Uses of Fiction Fiction and Politics Fiction and Religion Questioning how fictions in fact shape mediate or distort our beliefs about the real world essays in this volume outline the state of theoretical debates from the perspectives of literary theory philosophy sociology religious studies history and the cognitive sciences It aims to take stock of the real or supposed effects that fiction has on the world and to offer a wide reaching reflection on the implications of belief in fictions in the so called post truth era

The Heatstroke Line: A Cli-Fi Novel Edward L. Rubin, 2015-09-29 Edward Rubin has temporarily exchanged his academic cap for a novelist's hat and has written a powerful cli fi novel set in the near future He knows that Mad Max The Hunger Games Waterworld The Walking Dead and innumerable other books movies and TV series attract large audiences by portraying a future where society has been devastated by war disease environmental calamity or supernatural disaster Such post apocalyptic tales constitute an important and widely popular genre As a novelist Rubin wants to place his own cli fi footprint in the sands of time and hopes that his book will serve as a kind of warning flare for readers now and in the future Dan Bloom The Cli Fi Report

Cli-fi Bruce Meyer, 2017 With the world facing the greatest global crisis of all time climate change personal and political indifference has wrought a series of unfolding complications that are altering our planet and threatening our very existence Reacting to the warnings sounded by scientists and thinkers writers are responding imaginatively to the seriousness of changing ocean conditions the widening disappearance of species genetically modified organisms increasing food shortages mass migrations of refugees and the hubris behind our provoking Mother Earth herself These stories of Climate Fiction Cli fi feature perspectives by culturally diverse Canadian writers of short fiction science fiction fantasy and futurist works and transcend traditional doomsday stories by inspiring us to overcome the bleak forecasted results of our current indifference Authors George McWhirter Richard Van Camp Holly Schofield Linda Rogers Sean Virgo Rati Mehrotra Geoffrey W Cole Phil
