TikTok Marketing for Viral Sales Anastasia Olson, 2020-12-05 TikTok is the fastest growing social media app in the world and one of the fastest apps to reach a billion subscribers in history. TikTok has also become one of the world's leading platforms for creativity, fun, and business. It offers an unprecedented opportunity for businesses to advertise their products to people. In reality, it is much more difficult and complicated to become successful. This is because TikTok's algorithm rewards content in a totally different way from other social media apps. Going viral on TikTok requires that TikTok's algorithm favors your content above those of the many millions on the app. So, how exactly can you succeed on TikTok? How can you make your contents go viral? How can you acquire thousands of followers? And how can you convert these followers to loyal customers for your business? This book provides all the answers and more. The Mediated World David T. Z. Mindich, 2023-12-11

A full color interdisciplinary exploration of how media and mass communication shape society and how students can take control of their media futures. Today's students have a world of knowledge at their fingertips and no longer need books to list names and dates. What they need is the story of how everything fits together and the critical tools to take charge of their place within that story. David T. Z. Mindich's The Mediated World charts the story of media as it has shaped human life and as it infuses every aspect of our modern existence. Mindich's engaging narrative style focuses on concepts and real world contexts to promote the media literacy students need to understand their personal relationships with media. Empowered as media consumers, creators, and curators, students realize their responsibility to work within the vast world of media to create more positive and productive futures. The second edition of this text brings historical media and overarching themes to life for students. Each chapter opens with a contemporary vignette that meets students in the current moment before encouraging them to consider the past Application sidebars suggest practical activities that allow students to delve deeper into topics while Reflection boxes encourage students to think critically about their own media use. With a strong emphasis on media literacy that treats students as media stakeholders who have a vested interest in understanding its workings and effects, Mindich's text is the perfect book for a generation of students looking to take charge of their futures in this mediated world. New to the Second Edition, New chapter opening vignettes connect with students in the current moment before welcoming them to consider the past. New Chapter 8, Representation and the Lives that Matter in the Media, encourages students to think critically about which people get to be heard and which are overlooked. New Chapter 13, Hot and Cold Video Games, critically explores a powerful media force in students' recreational lives. Expanded discussions on current cultural, political, and technological references engage with controversies. Features: Full color layout with photos and graphics to enrich students' reading experience. Integrated focus on representation in media reminds students of the pervasive impact of bias across society. Margin keyword definitions help students develop critical vocabularies. Three different feature boxes—Reflection, Application, and Now and Then—reinforce concepts and engage students' critical thinking skills. Chapter learning objectives, chapter summaries, and discussion questions reinforce historical frameworks and key concepts. For instructors: a test bank, lecture notes and slides, and a sample syllabus. For the students: chapter flashcards, a digital glossary, and videos and links.

Atravesados Trevor Boffone, Cristina Herrera, 2025-02-17. Contributions by Frederick Luis Aldama, Trevor Boffone, T. Jackie Cuevas, Cristina Herrera, Alexander Lalama, Angel Daniel Matos, Regina Marie Mills, Joseph Isaac Miranda, Jesus Montaño, Domino, Renee P rez, Regan Postma, Montaño, Cristina Rhodes, and Sonia Alejandra Rodriguez. Atravesados: Essays on Queer Latinx Young Adult Literature shows how Latinx queer YA writers discard the same old story and offer critical representations of queerness that broaden YA writing and insist on the presence of queer teens of color. Atravesados draws on foundational Chicana queer theorist Gloria Anzaldá's notion of atravesados to speak to the spectrum of queer youth Latinidades as they materialize in YA literature. Los atravesados according to Anzaldá are the squint eyed, the perverse, the queer, the troublesome, the mongrel, the mulato, the half breed, the half dead, in short, those who cross over, pass over, or through the confines of the normal. Los atravesados reside in the borderlands space of ni de aquí ni de allá, neither here nor there, present yet liminal, their queerness the very source of both frustration and empowerment, a paradox of joy and tragedy. Although written in 1987, Anzaldá's theory speaks to the realities of queer Latinx teens that fill the pages of YA literature well into the twenty-first century. Characters such as Juliet from Gabby Rivera's Juliet Takes a Breath, Aaron from Adam Silvera's More Happy Than Not, or the titular Chulito from Charles Rice Gonzales's novel encompass the highs, lows, and everything in betweenness of queer Latinx teen lived experiences. This collection tells their stories. Contributors speak to the spectrum of queer youth Latinidades as they materialize in YA literature, paying close attention to representation and the ways youth are portrayed, whether accurate or stereotypical. Close attention is paid to books that succeed in broadening the field of YA highlighting authors that draw from their own lived experiences and situate strong fully developed characters Taken together these essays move beyond the page explaining to readers why representation and authenticity matter in YA literature as well as the far reaching effects they can have for real world queer Latinx teens The Publishing Business Kelvin Smith,Melanie Ramdarshan Bold,2024-01-11 Are you considering a career in the world of publishing or simply want to understand more about the industry If so The Publishing Business will take you through the essential publishing activities performed in editorial rights design production sales and marketing departments International examples from across the industry from children s books to academic monographs demonstrate key responsibilities at each stage of the publishing process and how the industry is adapting to digital culture This 3rd edition has been updated with more on the role of self publishing independent publishers audio books the rise of poetry and non fiction and how the industry is facing up to challenges of sustainability inclusivity and diversity Beautifully designed and full of insight and advice from practitioner interviews this is an essential introduction to a dynamic industry Interviewees include Anne Meadows Commissioning Editor at Granta and Portobello Books Zaahida Nabagereka Head of Social Impact at Penguin Books UK Ashleigh Gardner Senior Vice President Managing Director Global Publishing Wattpad Caroline Walsh Literary Agent David Higham Associates Peter Blackstock VP Deputy Publisher Grove Atlantic Publisher Grove Press UK Amy Ellis Head of Rights and Permissions Publishers Licensing Services Victoria Lawrence Rights Manager Bloomsbury Publishing Plc Shaun Hodgkinson COO Dorling Kindersley Thomas Truong Publishing Director Little Tiger Group Jenny Blenk Associate Editor Dark Horse Comics Jeanette Morton Digital Publisher Oxford University Press Maria Vassilopoulos Publishing Sales Uni of Wales Press and Calon Books Ian Lamb Head Of Children s Marketing and Publicity Simon and Schuster Publishers Weekly Book Publishing Almanac 2022
