Community-Based Integrated Care for Older Adults Matthew K. McNabney, 2022-08-16. Community based integrated care CBIC is designed to keep older adults where they want to be at home and out of hospitals and nursing homes. The Program of All Inclusive Care for the Elderly PACE is an example of successful CBIC established in 1985 as an innovative solution to pervasive issue how to provide integrated care to a high risk population of older adults that promotes community living not a nursing home in a cost effective manner. This unique guide provides readers with a concise yet informative base of understanding of PACE as well as a deep dive into the components and job roles that will serve as a reference for existing PACE providers and will inform those who are considering the possibility of developing a new PACE program. Chapters are organized into five thematic sections. Part one presents both domestic and international perspectives on CBIC with part two delving deeper into the US PACE model including its history policy evolution and effectiveness. Specifics regarding the organization and management of PACE and the essential roles and positions comprise parts three and four respectively from leadership and the involvement of the state to the roles of the social worker nurse nutritionist rehabilitation specialist and more. Care planning coordination and end of life care round out part five. In addition to geriatricians and other clinical practitioners involved with the care of older patients. Community Based Integrated Care for Older Adults is also a resource for scholars policy makers and the general public who are interested in innovations in long term care that provide older adults with alternatives to nursing homes.
