Cather Studies Volume 8 Willa Cather A Writers Worlds:

Willa Cather Cather Studies,2010-11-01 The essays in Cather Studies Volume 8 explore the many locales and cultures informing Willa Cather's fiction. A lifelong Francophile, Cather first visited France in 1902 and returned repeatedly throughout her life. Her visits to France influenced not only her writing but also her interpretation of other worlds. For example, while visiting the American Southwest in 1912, a region that informed her subsequent works, she first viewed that landscape through the prism of her memories of Provence. Cather's intellectual intercourse between the Old and the New World was a two-way street, moving both people and cultural mores between the two. But her worlds extended far beyond France or even geographical locations. This new volume pairs Cather innovatively with additional influences: theological, aesthetic, even gastronomical, and examines her as tourist and traveler, cautiously yet assiduously exploring a diverse range of places, ethnicities, and professions. BOOK JACKET

Cather Studies, Volume 13 Cather Studies,2021-07 Cather Studies Volume 13 explores the myriad ways that Willa Cather's writing career was shaped during the crucial years in Pittsburgh and the artistic, professional, and personal connections she made there.

Canada Through American Eyes Jennifer Andrews,2023-06-22 This book explores how Canada is imagined primarily by US writers and what readers and scholars on both sides of the Canada-US border can learn from these recent depictions by examining a selection of US-authored fiction from 1911 to the present. The novels and occasionally paintings, films, and musicals that are the subject of the book provide a deliberately varied set of case studies to probe how US texts, along with works of art produced on both sides of the Canada-US border, uncover moments in Canadian historical and literary studies that have been buried or occluded to protect Canada's self-representation as an exceptional nation.

Willa Cather's Canadian and Old World Connections Robert Thacker,Michael A. Peterman,1999-01-01 Cather Studies 4 contains eighteen essays and elaborates a theme: Willa Cather's Canadian and Old World Connections. Such connections are central to Cather's art and artistry. She transported much from the Old World to the New, shaping her antecedents to tell in new ways the stories of Nebraska, of the American Southwest, and especially of Quebec. In Shadows on the Rock, David Stouck details Cather's numerous Canadian connections. Richard Millington treats her anthropological re-creation of the cultural moment of seventeenth-century Quebec, and François Palteau Papin finds The Hidden French in Cather's English. A volume of lively and informed criticism, Cather Studies 4 vividly demonstrates Cather's artistry and her work's deep connections to the present cultural and critical moment.

Great Plains Quarterly,2011 Mere Reading Lee Clark Mitchell,2017-04-20 Argues through close readings of twentieth-century American novels for a return to the foundations of literary study.
