As Pilgrims Progress - Learning how Christians can walk hand in hand when they don't see eye to eye Stephen John March,David E. Bjork,2015-05-29 This book is for Roman Catholic and Evangelical Protestant lay people who wonder what relationship if any they might have with their friends who come from a different Christian faith tradition than their own The authors aim to address that question in a practical way They believe that while disagreements remain it is possible to preserve the integrity of the faith while relating positively to Christians who cherish other beliefs The opinions expressed in this book grew out of nearly thirty years of experience as evangelical protestant missionaries ministering in catholic parish communities in France The goal of the book is to move the readers beyond simply understanding each other to a place where they might begin using their diversity to stimulate and encourage each other in our common pursuit of obedient discipleship We know of no other book which targets ecumenical lay relations in this way

Crossing the Tiber Stephen K. Ray, 2011-02-16 An exhilarating conversion story of a devout Baptist who relates how he overcame his hostility to the Catholic Church by a combination of serious Bible study and vast research of the writings of the early Church Fathers In addition to a moving account of their conversion that caused Ray and his wife to cross the Tiber to Rome he offers an in depth treatment of Baptism and the Eucharist in Scripture and the ancient Church Thoroughly documented with hundreds of footnotes this contains perhaps the most complete compilation of biblical and patristic quotations and commentary available on Baptism and the Eucharist as well as a detailed analysis of Sola Scriptura and Tradition This is really three books in one that offers not only a compelling conversion story but documented facts that are likely to cinch many other conversions Karl Keating A very moving and astute story I am enormously impressed with Ray's candor courage and theological literacy Thomas Howard Stephen K Ray was raised in a devout and loving Baptist family His
