Catholic Missions Northern Nigeria Foundation:

The Catholic Missions in Northern Nigeria Joseph Mouren, Joseph Mouren Sma, 2015-12-08 Frs Oswald Waller Joseph Mouren and Ernest Belin were the first missionaries to shed literally their sweat and blood to start the first mission of Northern Nigeria in 1907 It was not an easy task by any standard When Fr Mouren went back to Shendam in 1957 for the fiftieth anniversary of the place he could see two dioceses two prefectures and thirty five residential stations with over sixty five thousand Catholics in the place that had nothing but three zealous missionaries fifty years earlier Fr Mouren wrote the history of the foundation and the first years of the mission at Shendam at the request of the Bishop of Jos Mgr John Reddington SMA and sent it to him in April 1957 Fr Mouren could confidently say that the facts were rigorously exact thanks to his habit of keeping a mission diary In addition to getting exact facts we enjoy the book like a novel We admire the courage commitment and the practical skills of the missionaries In the midst of hardships and tragedies we discover not only the various joys and consolations but also the great sense of humour

U.S. Non-profit Organizations, Voluntary Agencies, Missions and Foundations Participating in Technical Assistance Abroad, 1971 Making Headway Andrew E. Barnes, 2009 A thought provoking study of local peoples participation in the process of cultural transfer in colonial Northern Nigeria The process of cultural transfer in Northern Nigeria was historically thought to have been dictated by European colonial domination In fact Western missionaries may not have been able to guide African Christians toward mastery of the secular world when they themselves lacked the worldliness to do so In this penetrating study Andrew E Barnes argues that competition among colonizing forces impelled British colonial administrators and Christian missionaries alike to offer Africans those aspects of Western civilization Africans themselves specifically wanted schools that provided greater access to Western intellectual skills In Making Headway The Introduction of Western Civilization in Colonial Northern Nigeria Barnes demonstrates effectively that Europeans were successful in transferring to local peoples the cultural values they hoped to foster only because Africans and Europeans reached consensus about the nature and character of the Western civilization to be shared Ultimately this study asserts Africans had greater control over the introduction of Western civilization to the region than traditionally thought Andrew E Barnes is Associate Professor of History at Arizona State University U.S. Non-profit Organizations, Voluntary Agencies, Missions and Foundations Participating in Technical Assistance Abroad Technical Assistance Information Clearing House, 1971 Our Missions, 1916
