Cave Refectory Road Cave Refectory Road:

Cave Refectory Road Ian Adams,2010-09-30 One way in which Fresh Expressions of church are springing into life is through new monastic or intentional communities groups of individuals and families living in the same geographic area or connected virtually who share a simple rule of life Cave Refectory Road explores how traditional monastic life is helping to shape a new flowering of Christian community today It traces the roots of new monasticism and draws on the classic elements of monastic life to suggest how this ancient wisdom learning and spiritual practice might be reinterpreted for new settings A handbook for all who are exploring intentional living its rich and inspiring teaching is clustered around these themes The cave the place of stillness prayer and withdrawal that can inspire a new engagement with the mystery of God the refectory how monastic practices of hospitality can create communities that make a difference in the world and the road how the example of the friars can lead to creative and loving engagement with public life Deep and Wide Evan B.

Howard,2023-05-02 Commitment to a life of prayer and community can prove to be a great help for those involved in politics Rather than being distracted away from action Evan B Howard argues that committed Christians often find both freedom and empowerment to contribute to the greater good of the world A review of the history of committed Christian life monasticism shows that devout communities have engaged in a wide range of socio political arenas We can explore today what nuns and monks have accomplished in the past We can speak into political conversations We can care for those in need We can model new ways of ordering life together We can take concrete political action in governmental process We can pray This book blends examination of history with musings about the Christian life and politics generally It also offers a collection of monastic practices to equip communities and individuals to embody an appropriate blend of deep and wide for themselves

Consecrated Spirits Felicity Leng,2013-01-25 Many silent and forgotten voices are brought to life in this volume which presents the accumulated wisdom of women mystics theologians spiritual directors poets visionaries mothers and activists over eleven centuries Featured writers include Julian of Norwich Hildegard of Bingen Catherine of Siena Teresa of Avila Therese of Lisieux Bernadette of Lourdes Bridget of Sweden Wendy Beckett Joan Chittister and many more some translated into English for the first time Their concerns are broad ranging and they reflect on Prayer Family life a woman s lot suffering comfort and consolation women s ministry and its restrictions and more All these varied voices are linked by a common thread in every age women have sought authentic spiritual self expression This anthology is an inspiration for all women today who are seeking opportunity to define and realise their charisma New Monasticism as Fresh Expression of

Church Graham Cray,2013-01-25 This title explores the emergence of monastic spirituality not just as a resource for personal formation but for building fresh expressions of church Leaders of traditional religious communities and emerging new monastic communities tell their stories reflecting on how an ancient expression of being church is inspiring and shaping a new one Running Over Rocks Ian Adams,2013-06-28 Arising out of many years of giving workshops and retreats on the theme Ian Adams explores simple spiritual practices that will enable us to live with imagination adventure and generosity and to keep our balance in life even when things threaten to overwhelm us Running Over Rocks offers a series of 25 down to earth spiritual strategies for everyday living that can help us not just to cope but to see the difficulties that might otherwise derail us as fresh opportunities to let the God of the unexpected come in and transform us Ian Adams draws on the life changing possibilities of the Parables of Jesus and the Beatitudes which upend our usual theories of success and well being The wisdom and work of monastics and contemplatives activists and artists and all who are trying to reshape the world for good today are generously shared here
