Catholic And Ecumenical History And Hope:

Catholic and Ecumenical Frederick M. Bliss, 2007-04-18 Ecumenical consciousness has not always been part of the Catholic experience Frederick M Bliss S M traces how the concern for ecumenism came about from uneasy tension to confidence in the true grace of catholicity This new edition follows significant developments in dialogues with the Catholic Church up to 2006 and suggests likely trends of continuing change It studies the forces that had an impact on the Second Vatican Council forces that continue to steer the church into relationships with other Christian communities other religions and the world Reinterpreting Revelation and Tradition John Pawlikowski, Hayim Goren Perelmuter, 2000 An extraordinary exploration into the mutual validity of the Jewish and Christian covenants The contributors gathered here address such topics as shared texts the rabbinical response to emerging Christianity and apocalyptic and mystical texts Exploring the Evolving View of God John M. Perry, 1999 Exploring the Evolving View of God outlines cultural and historical limitations that continue to shape our language and ideas about God It relates abstract thinking about God to the concrete history of ancient Israel and draws parallels between Israel's history and the New Testament confession of Jesus as Messiah

Changing the Church Mark D. Chapman, Vladimir Latinovic, 2020-11-13 This volume dedicated to the memory of Gerard Mannion 1970-2019 former Joseph and Winifred Amato Chair in Catholic Studies at Georgetown University explores the topic of changing the church from a range of different theological perspectives The volume contributors offer answers to questions such as What needs to be changed in the universal church and in the particular denominations How has change influenced the life of the church What are the dangers that change brings with it What awaits the church if it refuses to change Many of the essays focus on people who have changed the church significantly and on events that have catalyzed change for the better or for the worse Some also present visions of change for particular Christian denominations whether over the ordination of the women different approaches to sexuality reform of the magisterium and many other issues related to change Old Catholic and Philippine Independent Ecclesiologies in History Peter-Ben Smit, 2011-08-25 This study researches the development of the self understanding of the Old Catholic Churches of the Union of Utrecht and the Iglesia Filipina Independiente during the 20th century with special attention for their ecclesiologies of the local and national church

From Ecumenism to Community Relations Maria Power, 2007 This volume focuses on the ways in which the Protestant and Catholic Churches have worked together to promote peace and reconciliation and improve community relations in Northern Ireland It also examines the various contacts which have taken place since Vatican II Grassroots Unity in the Charismatic Renewal Connie Ho Yan Au, 2011-02-23 This book explores the nature of grassroots unity in the British charismatic renewal in the 1970s and its significance to ecumenism The study is based on the five international conferences of the Fountain Trust and focuses on two grassroots activities worship in general and the celebration of the Eucharist in particular Worship in this setting nurtured unity through charisms but the Eucharist exposed the inadequacy of this grassroots unity because of doctrinal and ecclesiological differences This book aims to suggest a way forward by searching for the complementarity of institution and charisms and Christology and Pneumatology in a charismatic context It argues that the two emphases of the charismatic renewal charisms and the Holy Spirit complement the institutional commitments of the church and ecumenism The concepts of Christus praesens and Spiritus praesens are considered intrinsic to the charisms and thus Christology and Pneumatology should both be considered significant for ecumenism The study finally discusses the complementarity of ecumenical institutions and the charismatic renewal the convergence of ecumenical streams and continuity in modern ecumenical history

History of the Catholic Church James Hitchcock, 2012-11-26 The Catholic Church is the longest enduring institution in the world Beginning with the first Christians and continuing in our present day the Church has been planted in every nation on earth The Catholic Church claims Jesus Christ himself as her founder and in spite of heresy from within and hostility from without she remains in the twenty first century the steadfast guardian of belief in his life death and resurrection The teachings and redemptive works of Jesus as told in the Gospels are expressed by the Church in a coherent and consistent body of doctrine the likes of which cannot be found in any other Christian body The history of the Catholic Church is long complicated and fascinating and in this book it is expertly and ably told by historian James Hitchcock As in the parable of Christ about the weeds that were sown in a field of wheat evil and good have grown together in the Church from the start as Hitchcock honestly records He brings before us the many characters some noble some notorious who have left an indelible mark on the Church while never losing sight of the saints who have given living testimony to the salvific power of Christ in every age This ambitious work is comprehensive in its scope and incisive in its understanding a valuable addition to any school or home library American Book Publishing Record, 2007

The Catholic world, 1894 Edinburgh Critical History of Twentieth-Century Christian Theology Philip G. Ziegler, 2022-04-27 This volume re examines the history of twentieth century Christian theology by tracing key concepts problems and themes as they develop in context with new perspectives opened up by contemporary theology itself The ambition is to illuminate the context dynamism and complexities of its traditions and in doing so to offer a critical and creative ressourcement for contemporary theologians The range of international contributors to this volume inquire afresh into the preoccupations problems provocations and prospects of Christian theology in the century just past to ask anew about just what in this recent history matters and why Anglican and Episcopal History, 2007 Includes section Book reviews
