Catholic Moral Tradition In Christ A New Creation:

Catholic Moral Tradition in Christ, a New Creation David Bohr,1990      Catholic Moral Tradition, Revised David Bohr,2006-02-22 Too many Catholics tend to believe that morality is primarily about keeping laws and avoiding sin Catholic Moral Tradition Revised shows how from the beginning the Christian moral life is first and foremost about living our lives according to the new law of grace The gift of the Holy Spirit given us at baptism is a dynamic inner principle that transforms us into a new creation in Christ This book presents an introductory summary of contemporary Catholic moral teaching based upon the renewal mandated by the Second Vatican Council It also incorporates subsequent Church documents especially the moral encyclicals of John Paul II Veritatis Splendor and Evangelium Vitae along with his three encyclicals on Catholic social doctrine and the Catechism of the Catholic Church      Where Do You Stand? Gregory C. Higgins,1995 This book offers a way of reflecting on eight life issues ranging from sex to capital punishment It doesn't give answers It does ask questions Each issue is explored by a process that offers mature arguments from proponents of different views yet that leads the reader to make a personal commitment to one course or another The process consists of concrete situations that put the moral issue in the real life perspective a detailed examination of the underlying questions with arguments supporting each side discussion questions for group interaction or personal reflection and suggested readings resources for those who wish to pursue the questions in more depth

Divine Promise and Human Freedom in Contemporary Catholic Thought Kevin A. McMahon,2015-07-01 It has always been understood that the central claim of Christianity that Jesus born of Mary is the Son of God is as much a declaration of the mystery of the human as it is the mystery of God just as the claim that in virtue of this identity he is the Christ who restores and more transforms the created order intensifies the mystery of the human even further When the age of revolution was followed by the age of science and the effort to shape the environment by technology was joined by an injunction to shape societies and economies and class conflicts became part of world conflicts the question about the human emerged as a crisis in the meaning of being human Yet the Catholic mind preoccupied like every other with the crisis has conducted its reflection within a tradition of Christian humanism insisting on the mystery and the tragedy and still the dignity of the human This collection of essays by thirteen Catholic scholars of philosophy theology and political thought investigates a range of topics from human sexuality and marriage to moral freedom and responsibility in a pluralistic society while demonstrating that the Gospel passed on in an ecclesial tradition entered into through a sacramental tradition remains the one radical source of confidence in the quest for human truth
