Africa Bears Witness Harvey Kwiyani, 2024-02-29 This remarkable collection of essays explores the role of African Christianity in God's mission around the world Featuring the contributions of African scholars and mission practitioners from throughout sub Saharan Africa and the diaspora including both men and women veteran scholars and fresh new voices this volume provides a diverse perspective on missiology as understood and practised by African Christians Engaging such wide ranging topics as gender violence globalization Westernization peacebuilding development Pentecostalism urban missiology theological education and African Christianity in Europe this volume ambitiously bridges the gap between academic and practitioner perspectives engaging both theological discourse and the hands on reality of how God's mission is taking shape in Africa and beyond This book offers an empowering look at the work God is accomplishing in and through the African church The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 The Paradox of Becoming Chammah J. Kaunda, 2023 The book offers a critical trans contextual analysis from theological and philosophical perspectives It constructs

the poetics of mysticality and materiasticity materiality and plasticity as a postindigenous turn in philosophy and theological inquiry for advancing an African Pentecostal discourse of new post humanity in Christ which resonates with planetary turn and emerging cultural and religious materialisms This approach is significant as African Pentecostalism is increasingly becoming life zones for reinterpretations and remediation of African cultural ideas of Muntu as a metaphor for planetarizing the Christian idea of the new humanity in Christ The book engages some of the major themes approaches and contemporary issues that dominate debate grounded on the history of metaphorical death within Western intellectual traditions the fundamental meaning of the Bemba ritual epistemology with its divine liminality critiques the postcolonial notions of Muntu and reclaims rituality to expand the account of kenotic incarnation as the condition of all creation for flourishing becoming Therefore the book charts a new path on engaging the model of kenotic incarnate Christ from ritual epistemology not only as a template of new creation and new post humanity but a paradigmatic reality for flourishing becoming of all things

African Pentecostals in Catholic Europe Annalisa Buttici, 2016-04-04 Over the past thirty years Italy the historic home of Catholicism has become a significant destination for migrants from Nigeria and Ghana Along with suitcases and dreams of a brighter future these Africans bring their own form of Christianity Pentecostalism shaped by their various cultures and religious worlds At the heart of Annalisa Buttici's beautifully sculpted ethnography of African Pentecostalism in Italy is a paradox Pentecostalism traditionally one of the most Protestant of Christian faiths is driven by the same concern as Catholicism real presence In Italy Pentecostals face harsh anti immigrant sentiment and limited access to economic and social resources At times they find safe spaces to worship in Catholic churches where a fascinating encounter unfolds that is equal parts conflict and communion When Pentecostals watch Catholics engage with sacramental objects relics statues works of art they recognize the signs of what they consider the idolatrous religions of their ancestors Catholics in turn view Pentecostal practices as a mix of African religions and Christian traditions Yet despite their apparently irreconcilable differences and conflicts they both share a deeply sensuous and material way to make the divine visible and tangible In this sense Pentecostalism appears much closer to Catholicism than to mainstream Protestantism African Pentecostals in Catholic Europe offers an intimate glimpse at what happens when the world's two fastest growing Christian faiths come into contact share worship space and use analogous sacramental objects and images And it explains how their seemingly antithetical practices and beliefs undergird a profound commonality

Pentecostalism, Catholicism, and the Spirit in the World Stan Chu Ilo, 2019-10-17 This volume's essays are an ecumenical ensemble of the best scholars and leading practitioners in the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements from all four corners of the world The contributors bring together various denominational perspectives and dialogue for understanding the present momentum of these Spirit movements in the world church Their diverse methodologies transverse the traditional and new approaches to studying these movements Pointing the way forward the authors highlight some of the lessons learned in their scholarly engagement with Spirit movements These lessons offer significant insight and viewpoints for the academy in the historical analysis of these movements They also serve as a good guide for pastoral discernment and accompaniment for God's people in their daily lives as well as for social ministries in the world church This volume addresses questions of salvation and eschatology health and healing prosperity and poverty suffering and death fear and faith despair and hope Other topics include the conflict between charism and institution and the tension between cultic clericalism and the affirmation and use of the gifts and talents of lay members of Christ's faithful in the church

Pentecostalism in Africa, 2014-10-16 Within recent decades Pentecostal charismatic Christianity has moved from an initially peripheral position to become a force to be reckoned with within Africa's religious landscape Bringing together prominent Africanist scholars from a wide range of disciplines this book offers a comprehensive and multifaceted treatment of the ways in which Pentecostal Charismatic movements have shaped the orientations of African Christianity and extended their influence into other spheres of post colonial societies such as politics developmental work and popular entertainment Among other things the chapters of the book show how Pentecostal charismatic Christianity responds to social and cultural concerns of Africans and how its growth and increasingly assertive presence in public life have facilitated new kinds of social positioning and claims to political power

Pacifism and Pentecostals in South Africa Marius Nel, 2018-06-27 Most of the early twentieth century Pentecostal denominations were peace churches that encouraged a stance of conscientious objection However since the Second World War Pentecostals have largely abandoned their pacifist viewpoint as they have taken on a more literal Biblical hermeneutic from their interaction with Evangelical denominations This book traces the history of nonviolence in Pentecostalism and suggests that a new hermeneutic of the Bible is needed by today's Pentecostals in order for them to rediscover their pacifist roots and effect positive social change The book focuses on how Pentecostalism has manifested in South Africa during the twentieth century Much of the available academic literature on hermeneutics and exegesis in the field of Pentecostal Studies is of an American or British European origin This book redresses this imbalance by exploring how the Bible has been used amongst African Pentecostals to teach on the apparent paradox of a simultaneously wrathful and loving God It then goes on to suggest that how the Bible is read directly affects how Pentecostals view their role as potential reformers of society So it must be engaged seriously and thoughtfully By bringing Pentecostalism's function in South African society to the fore this book adds a fresh perspective on the issue of pacifism in world Christianity As such it will be of great use to scholars of Pentecostal Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as those working in African Studies

The Politics of Gender Reform in West Africa Ludovic Lado, 2023-04-15 This anthropological study offers a crucial contribution to scholarly debates about the making of African modernity by considering the implementation and reception of gender reform in the West African context Historically attempts at implementing gender reform in West Africa have been met with suspicion Beyond the perception that such reforms subvert traditional structures of authority and community many worry that these efforts are inextricably connected to Western imperialism and colonialism Ludovic Lado's The Politics of Gender Reform in West Africa examines the politics of a legislative process entirely driven by the state and meant to narrow the gender gap in Ivorian society Lado discusses the legislative processes by which states have sought to reduce the gender gap between men and women probes the potential impact of this reform on the condition of women by exploring the practice of civil marriage in Abidjan and assesses the reception of the reform among Catholics and Muslims in Côte d'Ivoire Throughout this readable and engaging study Lado examines how the relationship between secular powers and religious authorities has determined the direction gender reforms have taken Although the predominant focus in this text remains on gender reforms in Côte d'Ivoire Lado also discusses their correlates in Niger Senegal and Mali He shows that the success or failure of gender reforms in West Africa has relied on the interaction of various power relationships that structure the international national local religious and domestic arenas within which West Africans go about their lives The book concludes with an informed reflection on the relationship among religions the state and gender reforms that highlights some of the issues at stake in the domestication of hegemonic modernity in Africa

Pentecostalism and Catholic Ecumenism In Developing Nations John Segun Odeyemi, 2019-04-29 Through fieldwork research this book seeks to explore Catholic ecumenism and the proliferation of Pentecostalism Using data gathered from four West African countries it additionally endeavors to investigate the sociopolitical impact of Pentecostalism which is growing exponentially and is seen by many as the new face and phase of Christianity on the continent This book puts a search light on the reality of West African Pentecostalism and its relationship with the older Christian traditions It cogently asks if Pentecostalism is a cog in the wheels of the fragile ecumenical work among West African Christianity and wonders about its impact on the poor existing social economic and political situations common to most West African politics and governments This book is for professionals and students of religion and theology and is useful for the casual reader

Christianity and the African Imagination David Maxwell, Ingrid Lawrie, 2022-08-08 During the twentieth century Christendom shifted its centre of gravity to the Southern Hemisphere Africa becoming the most significant area of church growth This volume explores Christianity's advance across the continent and its capturing of the African imagination From the medieval Catholic Kingdom of Kongo to a transnational Pentecostal movement in post colonial Zimbabwe the chapters explore how African agents priests and prophets martyrs and missionaries evangelists and catechists have seized Christianity and made it theirs Emphasizing popular religion the book shows how the Christian ideas and texts practices and symbols which have been adapted by Africans help them accept existential passions and empower them through faith to deal with material concerns for health and wealth and to overcome evil

African Pentecostalism from African Perspectives Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Loreen Maseno, 2024-10-28 This book makes a significant contribution to the study of African Pentecostalism by reflecting on their output Deviating from the widespread phenomenon of scholars from the Global North being dominant voices on African Pentecostalism this volume brings together African scholars from diverse academic disciplines and African Diasporan to showcase how they've helped to shape the field. This volume addresses the lacuna in the available scholarship by undertaking detailed analyses of how scholarship and exemplifies the various areas where African scholars have made and continue to make contributions. The included chapters engage in methodological debates on African Pentecostalism from the continent as well as from African diaspora and is a must read for scholars working on Pentecostalism.

JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH, The Viewpoint of Most African Pentecostals Grace Boateng Owens, 2016-06-26 Justification by faith: The Viewpoint of Most African Pentecostals. The author has discussed the viewpoint of most African Pentecostal churches on the doctrine of Justification by faith in comparison with the theories of some selected twenty-first Theologians. What do the teachings of the Apostles James and Paul on justification actually mean to the contemporary Christian? Were the two Apostles contradicting themselves or not? Should the believer of Jesus Christ continue to sin deliberately because of the grace of God? This is an interesting book and must be read.

Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa Adeshina Afolayan, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, Toyin Falola, 2018-06-29 As the epicenter of Christianity has shifted towards Africa in recent decades, Pentecostalism has emerged as a particularly vibrant presence on the continent. This collection of essays offers a groundbreaking study of the complex links between politics and African Pentecostalism. Situated at the intersection between the political, the postcolonial, and global neoliberal capitalism, contributors examine the roots of the Pentecostal movement's extraordinary growth, how Pentecostalism intervenes in key social and political issues such as citizenship, party politics, development challenges, and identity, and conversely how politics in Africa modulate the Pentecostal movement. Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa offers a wide-ranging picture of a central dimension of postcolonial African life, opening up new directions for future research.

The Fourth Pentecostal Wave in South Africa Solomon Kgatle, 2019-11-27 This book critically examines contemporary Pentecostalism in South Africa and its influence on some of the countries that surround it. Pentecostalism plays a significant role in the religious life of this region, and so evaluating its impact is key to understanding how religion functions in Twenty-First-Century Africa. Beginning with an overview of the roots of Pentecostalism in Southern Africa, the book moves on to identify a current fourth wave of this form of Christianity. It sets out the factors that have given rise to this movement and then offers the first academic evaluation of its theology and practice. Positive aspects as well as extreme or negative practices are all identified in order to give a balanced and nuanced assessment of this religious group and allow the reader to gain valuable insight into how it interacts with wider African society. This book is a cutting-edge look at an emerging form of one of the fastest-growing religions in the world. It will therefore be of great use to scholars working in Pentecostalism, Theology, Religious Studies, and African Religion, as well as African Studies more generally.

African Pentecostalism from African Perspectives Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Loreen Maseno, 2024-11-05 Although African scholars have made a significant contribution to the study of African Pentecostalism, very few studies have reflected on their output. Most of the contemporary publications on the widespread phenomenon of African Pentecostalism create the impression that only scholars from the Global North have contributed to the field. This volume addresses the lacuna in the available scholarship by undertaking detailed analyses of how African scholars from diverse academic disciplines and African Diasporan context have helped to shape the field. The included chapters provide fresh data on new themes and perspectives in the field.
