The Index to American Catholic Pamphlets Eugene Paul Willging,1927 Modern Catholic Social Teaching Kenneth R. Himes, OFM,2005-08-10 With an equal emphasis on every word in the title and with a distinctly American perspective Himes and his distinguished associate editors and contributors have assembled the most thorough and authoritative assessment of modern Roman Catholic social teaching to date likely to remain the touchstone volume for decades This culmination of many years of effort by twenty stellar scholars has produced a reference work for anyone interested in understanding or studying the key documents that comprise the central corpus of Catholic social teaching. In addition to interrogations of the major documents this volume provides an understanding of the biblical and philosophical foundations of Catholic social teaching addresses the doctrinal issues that arise in such a context and explores the social thought leading up to the modern era generally accepted as beginning in 1891 with the publication of Pope Leo XIII's Rerum Novarum. Finally there is a review of how Catholic social teaching has been received in the United States and an informed look at the shortcomings and questions that future generations must address. By any standard Modern Catholic Social Teaching is a remarkable work intellectually rigorous and deeply faithful it provides accessible and thought provoking insights into the heart of a belief tradition that every Catholic will find invaluable.

Participation, Representation and Global Civil Society Jane W. Muthumbi, 2010-03-18

This book focuses on religious fundamentalists mobilization efforts against abortion in three United Nations Conferences. Using U.S. Christian and Egyptian Islamic fundamentalist groups as empirical cases this account highlights these groups' efforts against the adoption of abortion in the 1984 Mexico Conference on Population the 1994 Cairo conference on Population and the 1995 Beijing Conference on Women. The account which examines Northern U.S. Christian and Southern Egyptian Islamists anti-abortion networks participation and representation within these forums provides a unique glimpse into their engagement within international institutions. It also explores whether Northern and Southern groups' growing involvement in decision-making processes has lessened the inequality that historically characterized North-South relations in the international arena and compares the strategies and tactics used by these groups as they attempted to influence the debate on reproductive rights within the conferences PrepComs regional forums NGO Forums and the state dominated plenary sessions. It also assesses the extent to which these entities were effective in influencing outcomes in these arenas and comments on North-South relations in a contemporary context. Information on these groups was obtained from interviews with leaders of the U.S. Christian and Egyptian Islamic fundamentalist groups as well as secondary sources and official U.N. documents.

Patristic Sources and Catholic Social Teaching Brian J. Matz,2008 The fact that over one hundred patristic sources may be found in the documents of Catholic social teaching CST would suggest that patristic sources have not been forgotten as the title to this book suggests Yet this study of every patristic source citation in twenty one CST documents since the late nineteenth century suggests that just such a conclusion should be drawn The CST documents in this study largely ignored the historical and literary contexts of the patristic sources and this had the concomitant effect of limiting appropriation of the fullness of their arguments In addition most of the patristic citations do not reflect the socio ethical concerns of the patristic authors themselves Even when the patristic citations supported related theological themes usually they were relegated to footnotes This is not a study of themes or of theologies in the CST documents nor is it a study of the cultural and historical forces at work in the arguments made by those who drafted them Rather it is a study of the rhetorical theological and or pastoral function of each patristic source citation in the CST documents In this respect each CST document stands on its own as a rhetorical tour de force For that reason the study concludes with a vision for the fair use of patristic sources in future CST documents
