The Abortion Debate in the United States and Canada

Maureen Muldoon, 2021-03-19 First published in 1991 Over the last twenty five years or so the debate on abortion has not moved any closer to resolution in either the United States or Canada The courts the legislatures the pulpits the classrooms the hospitals and clinics and the media have provided the forums for this on going struggle Two groups of activists have dominated the debate The opponents of abortion who are referred to as anti abortion or pro life advocate restrictive policies on abortion while the pro choice groups direct their attempts to creating a permissive policy that allows a woman to make her own decision The anti abortion advocates and the pro choice advocates alike have learned the skills and developed the strategies to advance their own positions Whatever legal and public policy gains are made by one side are often countered by moves from their opponents There is available a vast amount of material related to the topic of abortion From the extensive and diverse literature this book draws a collection of relevant materials primarily representing aspects of the sociological philosophical religious and legal aspects of the abortion issue Its purpose is to serve as a source book for those interested in seeing how the abortion debate has been conducted within the recent past The book also serves as a reference work for further study

The Uncomfortable Pew Bruce

Douville, 2021-05-20 In The Uncomfortable Pew Bruce Douville explores the relationship between Christianity and the New Left in English Canada from 1959 to 1975 Focusing primarily on Toronto he examines the impact that left wing student radicalism had on Canada's largest Christian denominations and the role that Christianity played in shaping Canada's New Left Based on extensive archival research and oral interviews this study reconstructs the social and intellectual worlds of young radicals who saw themselves as part of both the church and the revolution Douville looks at major communities of faith and action including the Student Christian Movement Kairos and the Latin American Working Group and explains what made these and other groups effective incubators for left wing student activism He also sheds light on Canada's Roman Catholic Anglican and United churches and the ways that progressive older Christians engaged with radical youth and the issues that concerned them including the Vietnam War anti imperialism around the globe women's liberation and gay liberation Challenging the idea that the New Left was atheistic and secular The Uncomfortable Pew reveals that many young activists began their careers in student Christian organizations and these religious and social movements deeply influenced each other While the era was one of crisis and decline for leading Canadian churches Douville shows how Christianity retained an important measure of influence during a period of radical social change

The Anti-abortion Movement and the Rise of the Religious Right Dallas A. Blanchard,1994 Sociologist and anthropologist Blanchard chronicles the evolution of the anti-abortion movement in the US from the modest efforts mostly by priests and other Catholics in the 1960s through the major liberalizing court decisions to the volatile and often violent protests of the 1990s He says the single most important development has been the merging of the movement with the conservative political ideology of cultural fundamentalism Paper edition unseen 14 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Catholic and Protestant Conservatives Elisabeth Waeckerlin,2009 The Church in the Nineties Pierre Hégy,1993 Remembering for

Tomorrow Bernard Michael Daly, 1995 This history of the first 50 years of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops revisits ideas values and visions that dramatically changed the Catholic Church and challenged Canadian society It presents a social and religious record that is pertinent for current controversies about ethical issues social reforms and the public role of religion Feminist Periodicals ,1991 Women's Issues: A-Fir ,1997 Sociological Abstracts ,1992 Feminist Studies ,1990 Winning Choice on Abortion Ann Thomson, 2004 Do you know what it took to win women's right to choose in British Columbia Here are the dramatic personal stories from the Abortion Caravan to Everywoman's Health Centre Canadian Book Review Annual ,1989 The War Against the Family William Douglas Gairdner, 1992 Believing it is high time for someone to speak out in defense of the family William Gairdner the author of The Trouble with Canada has turned his attention to what he calls the civil war of values that is weakening the soul of the family in Canada Among his findings Traditional marriage is being demoted in our children's textbooks as only one choice among many types of family relationships Massive funding is given to radical lobby groups devoted to destroying the family while those supporting it go begging Sex education at one time the concern of families has become the property of sexologists and peer groups The mainline churches have abandoned souls for political causes and pagan theories The law and the courts of the land are decimating the traditional privileges of the family in the name of individual rights In writing that is vigorous and compelling Gairdner traces the war against the family to a political ideology springing from Plato Rousseau and a utopian liberalism that has become a caricature of itself everywhere promoting rights but forgetting duties Powered by this ideology the modern State eager for votes and hostile to freedom effectively weakens the family unit which it sees as a bastion of privacy privilege and authority In The War Against the Family Gairdner throws down the gauntlet forcing into the open a much needed debate about the future of the family in Western societies The family of today and future generations are sure to benefit Jacket flap
