about grace and gratitude Karma will collect when it's due Check your karma card Second thought be more grateful than that Live and stay balanced with the universe Know that abuse shame and pain can never truly define who you are They say practice makes perfect but who the hell is Nobody Don't waste the time you have Life is short and the moments left behind are fleeting Always trust your instinct your intuition and respect your values Even if no one else will Stand tall and speak more to the weak and less to the proud Pour your heart out and yes it will break you and yes it will crumble your pride it never breaks your spirit Never The sun will shine eventually Then you will laugh and you will cry and maybe even get mad But the words you read here are pure unfiltered and unrequited Damage is only a word You have the power to allow it to consume your heart You will stray and run into danger Drugs and alcohol can temporarily calm the hunger But underneath you are still aching from the pain You can try to drain all the shame from your veins But reality is simple When all is said and done we have lost our way to live We forgot our humanity Who the hell wants to walk in their scars when they can walk around them I say to you with a proud voice swim in your pain rather than skip muddy puddles Paint with your tears Become the physical manifestation of a warrior and release it all Who knows You might actually heal Yes we are can be vulnerable by choice and not by force Admit it You can find peace in revealing your truth and letting your shame be known I cried and screamed out to that little girl with force and tried to burn every twisted thought and internal battle Why Because I allowed my pain to hinder my purpose I ran away from my trauma This book is not to blame you him or her It is my story my journey and my reconciliation with me With her Yes that little girl Our stories are not unique They are universal There are millions of people who have faced abuse neglect abandonment suicide and depression We all hurt the same and we are all a little damaged and changed
