Prison Vocational Education and Policy in the United States Andrew J Dick,William Rich,Tony Waters,2016-08-05 This book explores California s prison system in the context of vocational education reform For prisons in the early twenty first century ideologies of evidence based management meant that reform efforts to change the purpose of prisons from punishment to rehabilitation through vocational education required evidence to justify policy prescriptions Yet who determines what constitutes evidence In political environments solutions are typically pre conceived which means that the nature of the evidence collected is also preconceived As a result key assumptions about outcomes are often wished away to show improvement and be accountable Through a detailed analysis interspersed with stories from the authors experiences behind the wall among California s prison population the authors challenge the nature of evidence based research as used in the prison environment In the process they describe the thorny problems facing reformers

Handbook on Lived Experience in the Justice System Christopher P. Dum,Jamie J. Fader,Thomas P. LeBel,Kevin A. Wright,2025-12-11 This volume offers a diverse set of scholarly essays on the imaginative potential of corrections and sentencing research practice that centers on the lived experience of the criminal legal system The Editors define lived experience broadly encompassing the subjective ways in which corrections and sentencing directly or indirectly affect a person s daily life They employ a diverse and expansive conceptualization of lived experience for example people with lived experience can be directly involved in writing or conducting the research or may be indirectly involved where the submission is about a program that includes people with lived experience in its operations e g credible messengers The volume includes 60 chapters written by academics practitioners and lived experts who are currently or formerly system impacted Chapters include short reflection essays on the meaning of lived experience state of the knowledge reviews on topics related to lived experience and more traditional empirical entries that highlight specific dimensions of lived experience This groundbreaking and thought provoking

Handbook will appeal to academics practitioners policymakers advocates and students seeking to understand the many ways in which corrections and sentencing directly or indirectly affect a person's daily life This is Volume 10 of The ASC Division on Corrections and Sentencing Handbook Series The handbooks provide in depth coverage of topical issues around sentencing and corrections for scholars students practitioners and policymakers Final Action Report California.
