Gender-Reveal Parties as Mediated Events

Carly Gieseler,2019-11-22 A decade ago it was difficult to imagine parents to be jumping from planes or dyeing their hair to publicly declare the sex of their unborn children Yet gender reveal parties have rapidly grown in popularity saturating the public imagination surrounding pregnancy and parenthood As a highly visible trend gender reveals correlate with our increased digital capacity for sharing competitive consumerism ritualized communitas and social media currency At the roots of this trend there may be motivations to reassert binary identities against a climate of acceptance and progression surrounding gender fluidity To analyze the divisive discourse surrounding this phenomenon this book explores issues including technologies of reproduction and media community and competition visibility and signifying the unborn consumerist imperatives and those uninvited from this trend In the process of selecting costumes of gender before birth

Gieseler argues parents to be appropriate the unborn body as a contested discursive site
