Media Sensation Gothic Fantasy:

Picture World Rachel Teukolsky, 2020-08-16 The modern media world came into being in the nineteenth century when machines were harnessed to produce texts and images in unprecedented numbers In the visual realm new industrial techniques generated a deluge of affordable pictorial items mass printed photographs posters cartoons and illustrations These alluring objects of the Victorian parlor were miniaturized spectacles that served as portals onto phantasmagoric versions of the world Although new kinds of pictures transformed everyday life these ephemeral items have received remarkably little scholarly attention Picture World shines a welcome new light onto these critically neglected yet fascinating visual objects They serve as entryways into the nineteenth century's key aesthetic concepts Each chapter pairs a new type of picture with a foundational keyword in Victorian aesthetics a familiar term reconceived through the lens of new media Character appears differently when considered with caricature in the new comics and cartoons appearing in the mass press in the 1830s likewise the book approaches realism through pictorial journalism illustration via illustrated Bibles sensation through carte de visite portrait photographs the picturesque by way of stereoscopic views and decadence through advertising posters Picture World studies the aesthetic effects of the nineteenth century's media revolution it uses the relics of a previous era's cultural life to interrogate the Victorian world's most deeply held values arriving at insights still relevant in our own media age

The Supernatural Media Virus Rahel Sixta Schmitz, 2021-07-02 Since the 1990s the virus and the network metaphors have become increasingly popular finding application in a broad range of everyday discourses academic disciplines and fiction genres In this book Rahel Sixta Schmitz defines and discusses a trope recurring in Gothic fiction the supernatural media virus This trope comprises the confluence of the virus the network and a deep underlying media anxiety This study shows how Gothic narratives such as House of Leaves or The Ring feature the supernatural media virus to negotiate as well as actively shape imaginations of the network society and the dangers of a globalized technologized world

Companion to Victorian Popular Fiction Kevin A. Morrison, 2018-10-29 This companion to Victorian popular fiction includes more than 300 cross referenced entries on works written for the British mass market Biographical sketches cover the writers and their publishers the topics that concerned them and the genres they helped to establish or refine Entries introduce readers to long overlooked authors who were widely read in their time with suggestions for further reading and emerging resources for the study of popular fiction

Victorian Sensation Fiction Jessica Cox, 2019-04-25 Since the establishment of sensation fiction in the 1860s key trends have emerged in critical readings of these texts From Victorian responses emphasising the lowbrow or potentially dangerous qualities of the genre to the prolific critical attention of the present day this Reader's Guide identifies the dominant approaches to sensation fiction and charts the critical trends of various scholarly evaluations and interpretations With coverage spanning empire class sexuality and adaptation this is the ideal companion for students of Victorian Literature looking for an introduction to the key debates surrounding sensation fiction

Figures of the Imagination Roger Hansford, 2017-03-16 This new study of the intersection of romance novels with vocal music records a society on the cusp of modernisation with a printing industry emerging to serve people's growing appetites for entertainment amidst their changing views of religion and the occult No mere diversion fiction was integral to musical culture and together both art forms reveal key intellectual currents that circulated in the early nineteenth century British home and were shared by many consumers Roger Hansford explores relationships between music produced in the early 1800s for domestic consumption and the fictional genre of romance offering a new view of romanticism in British print culture He surveys romance novels by Ann Radcliffe Matthew Lewis Sir Walter Scott James Hogg Edward Bulwer and Charles Kingsley in the period 1790-1850 interrogating the ways that music served to create mood and atmosphere enlivened social scenes and contributed to plot developments He explores the connections between musical scenes in romance fiction and the domestic song literature treating both types of source and their intersection as examples of material culture Hansford's intersectional reading revolves around a series of imaginative figures including the minstrel fairies mermaids ghosts and witches and Christians engaged both in virtue and vice the identities of which remained consistent as influence passed between the art forms While romance authors quoted song lyrics and included musical descriptions and characters their novels recorded and modelled the performance of songs by the middle and upper classes influencing the work of composers and the actions of performers who read romance fiction

High Art Lite Julian Stallabrass, 1999 High Art Lite takes a cool and critical look at the way in which British art in the 1990s has reinvented itself successfully appealing both to the mass media and to the elite art world In this extensively illustrated polemic Julian Stallabrass asks whether it has done so at the price of dumbing down and selling out 18 color and 53 b/w photographs

A Counter-History of Crime Fiction Maurizio Ascari, 2007-09-05 Nominated for the Mystery Writers of America Edgar Awards A Counter History of Crime Fiction takes a new look at the evolution of crime fiction drawing on material from the Middle Ages up to the early Twentieth century when the genre was theoretically defined as detective fiction Considering criminography as a system of inter-related even incestuous sub-genres Maurizio Ascari explores the connections between modes of literature such as revenge tragedies and providential fictions the gothic and the ghost story urban mysteries and anarchist fiction while taking into account the influence of pseudo sciences such as mesmerism and criminal anthropology

The Classic Novel Erica Sheen, Robert Giddings, 2000 This book critically examines the long established tradition of adapting classic novels to film or TV screen An emerging area of interest the relationship between film and literature and the way cinema and television have translated classic novels into moving pictures from the 30s to the 90s A wide ranging but focused collection that is bang up to date and free of media jargon that looks at both the film and the book Includes discussion of The English Patient Pride and Prejudice and Middlemarch Pickwick Papers Dracula Dickens Conrad Hardy and Waugh Fantasy Review ,1984

Crime, Culture and the Media Eamonn Carrabine, 2008-09-22 Why are newspapers and television programs filled with stories about crime and criminals Is their portrayal of crime accurate How do the media transform our attitudes to crime Is fear of crime for example really created by the media The book introduces the different ways in which relationships between crime and the media have been understood including classic debates about the media s effects news production and moral panics as well as more cutting edge studies of the representation of crime in the contemporary media Speculative Nostalgias Noam S. Cohen, 2008

British Fantasy and Science-fiction Writers Before World War I Darren Harris-Fain, 1997 Essays on British writers of fantasy and science fiction during a time when science technology and industrialization made increasingly impressive inroads from the Enlightenment to World War I A gradual emphasis on social improvement including literature involved efforts to increase literacy through expanding material to read During this period publication of newspapers penny dreadfuls and dime novels lead to pulp magazines and other popular periodicals

Genreflecting Betty Rosenberg, 1986 The Year's Best Fantasy and Horror 2007 Gavin Grant, 2007-10-02 For twenty years this award winning compilation has been the nonpareil benchmark against which all other annual fantasy and horror collections are judged Directed first by Ellen Datlow and Terri Windling and for the past four years by Datlow and Kelly Link and Gavin J Grant it consistently presents the strangest the funniest the darkest the sharpest the most original in short the best fantasy and horror The current collection marking a score of years offers more than forty stories and poems from almost as many sources Summations of the field by the editors are complemented by articles by Edward Bryant Charles de Lint and Jeff VanderMeer highlighting the best of the fantastic in respectively media music and comics as well as honorable mentions notable works that didn t quite make the cut but are nonetheless worthy of attention The Year s Best Fantasy and Horror Twentieth Annual Collection is a cornucopia of fantastic delights an unparalleled resource and indispensable reference that captures the unique excitement and beauty of the fantastic in all its gloriously diverse forms from the lightest fantasy to the darkest horror The Supernatural in Short Fiction of the Americas Dana Del George, 2001-08-30 The continuing cultural encounters of the Americas between European and indigenous cultures and between scientific materialism and premodern supernaturalism have originated new narrative forms While supernatural short fiction of the Americas belongs to the broad category of the fantastic which is generally approached synchronically reading audiences of the past 200 years have shifted their beliefs about the supernatural several times While nineteenth century readers understood science as real and the supernatural as imaginary modern audiences recognize both as inaccurate a shift which allows authors of supernatural fiction to celebrate premodern indigenous beliefs which were once disdained by a materialist culture This book situates supernatural short fiction of the Americas within the changing cultural and epistemological contexts of the last 200 years and explores how authors have drawn upon a wealth of indigenous traditions The book begins with a discussion of theories of the supernatural and the fantastic It then looks at some of the first encounters of European and Native American supernatural beliefs and points to the common elements of these early traditions The volume next focuses on American literature of the nineteenth century which has a complex fusion of materialist biases and metaphysical fascinations The final portion of the book gives greater attention to Spanish American literature and the blending of the supernatural with attitudes of nostalgia and uncertainty

Media Semiotics Jonathan Bignell, 1997 Using examples such as the Wonderbra advertisements and the film Waterworld Bignell presents an investigation of the critical approach to contemporary media studies and discusses the challenges posed by post structuralist theory and postmodernism

Fairy Tale Films Pauline Greenhill, Sidney Eve Matrix, 2010-08-06 To set the field fairy tales are traditional or literary fictional narratives that combine human and non human protagonists with elements of wonder and the supernatural Scholars of literature and film explore how such narratives manifest in film either native to it or changelings from written literature or oral tradition Among the topics are the commodification of childhood in contemporary fairy tale film Guillermo del Toro's Pan's Labyrinth El Laberinto del fauno and neomagical realism feminism and place in The Juniper Tree patriarchal backlash and nostalgia in Disney's Enchanted feminist cultural pedagogy in Angela Carter and Neil Jordan's The Company of Wolves and a secret midnight ball and a magic cloak in Stanley Kubrick's Eyes Wide Shut
