Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries.

Crushing Genevieve Novak, 2023-04-01 When do you stop starting over? The sparkling new novel from the author of No Hard Feelings. Getting over someone is not that difficult. All you have to do is focus on every negative thing about them for the rest of your life until you forget to stop actively hoping for their slow and painful death, then get a haircut. Serial monogamist Marnie is running late to her own identity crisis. After a decade of twisting herself into different versions of the ideal girlfriend, she's swearing off relationships for good. Forever Done. No more no thank you. Pretty inconvenient time to meet Isaac, certified dreamboat and the only man who has ever truly got her. It's cool though, they're just friends. He's got someone else and she has more important things to worry about. Like who she is, what she wants and what the hell she ever saw in the love of her life in the first place. Flanked by overwhelmed new mum Nicola, terminally single Claud and eternal pessimist Kit, Marnie reckons with the question who are we when we're on our own. Crushing stings with truth and aches with hope. I loved it. Jessica Dettmann. A sharp, funny and biting exploration of a classic millennial existential crisis with some genuine laugh-out-loud moments. Books Publishing. A sexy, complex, bittersweet dark chocolate soufflé of a book, airily paced, tartly funny and with a romantic centre that's just gooey enough. Clare Fletcher. Bingeable, sharply written and hilarious. Crushing had me hooked from the first page. This book is filled with love, rage and wisdom and reading it felt like having a wine with a best friend. Victoria Brookman, author of Burnt Out. Praise for No Hard Feelings. Funny, biting, vulnerable and unflinching. Novak's novel is like an ocean dip: a bit salty, very refreshing. Lauren Sams. No Hard Feelings is clever, funny and surprisingly sweet and Penny captured my heart. Toni Jordan. Wry and witty. Saturday Age.
