Othering in Children's Books, Films, and Toys Donna Varga, 2024-08-19 The Coloniality of Animal Monstrous Othering in Children's Books Films and Toys examines how the portrayal of animals as physically distorted behaviorally depraved and intellectually defective serves to justify their debasement violation and destruction in materials directed toward young consumers The author argues that this animal monstrous Othering arises from the Eurocentric belief in humans natural superiority over animals and the right to categorize animals in accordance with a scale of worthiness that parallels the subjugation of racialized persons The chapters examine a variety of canonical figures like the dissolute wolf of Red Riding Hood stories and the disfigured titular character of the Wonky Donkey picture book alongside non canonical animals including reprobate pigs degenerate sharks self centered flamingos and wicked piranhas To counter this animal debasement Varga juxtaposes these readings with an examination of materials that articulate harmonious animal human interrelationships without dependence on styles of anthropomorphism that diminish animality Pandemic and Crisis Discourse Andreas Musolff, Ruth Breeze, Kayo Kondo, Sara Vilar-Lluch, 2022-02-10 The COVID 19 pandemic has led to a host of critical reflections about discourse practises dealing with public health issues Situating crisis communication at the centre of societal and political debates about responses to the pandemic this volume analyses the discursive strategies used in a variety of settings Exploring how crisis discourse has become a part of managing the public health crisis itself this book focuses on the communicative tasks and challenges for both speakers and their public audiences in seven areas establishment of discursive and political authority official governmental and expert communication to the public public understanding of government communication legitimization of public health management as a war judging and blaming a collective other cross national comparison and rivalry empathy and encouragement Covering global discourses from Asia Europe the Middle East North and South America and New Zealand chapters use corpus based data to cast light on these issues from a variety of languages With crisis discourse already the object of fierce national and international debates about the appropriateness of specific communicative styles information management and verbal hygiene Pandemic and Crisis
