Changing Lives Changing Lives:

Changing Lives ,1995 Changing Lives Taylor Stoehr,2015-12-22 Changing Lives recounts the experiences of a dozen men on probation in Massachusetts who took classes for three months to read and talk about great works of literature The men explored the writings of Malcolm X Leo Tolstoy and Anton Chekhov amongst others In these writings the men discovered many issues relating to their own lives such as substance abuse family breakdown poverty and racism The lessons create a safe space for reflection and earnest conversation in which the students no longer have to bluff or be cool guarded or evasive And because the classroom puts them on equal footing with authority figures teachers probation officers and even judges a new social awareness begins to emerge Changing Lives shows how reawakening moral consciousness and a fresh commitment to society is essential if probationers are not to cycle endlessly through the limbo of street life and jail time

Changing Lives Through Redecision Therapy Mary McClure Goulding,Robert L. Goulding,1997 Redecision Therapy is based on the premise that through goal setting and the reenactment of important childhood scenes we may change our future and gain control of our lives This revised and updated edition includes the innovative treatment techniques developed by the Gouldings plus new material on short term treatment for victims of childhood sexual physical and emotional abuse and advice on how to utilize the strengths of each client to enhance and support therapy Changing Lives, Changing
