Click Ten Truths For Building Extraordinary Relationships:

Click: Ten Truths for Building Extraordinary Relationships George C. Fraser, 2008-01-07 Does the thought of networking make you cringe? In this book you will find ten simple principles that will dispel your dread of networking forever and reveal a proven path to success and happiness. Imagine mastering the skills to create an extraordinary marriage, lifelong friendships or powerful and enriching business relationships. That is what awaits you in Click. The tools to tap into the richest resource on the planet other people no matter how hard it's been for you to do so in the past. In Click you will discover the Ten Truths for connecting with people. Tailor your relationships to consciously create the perfect fit. Be authentic, attract what you love and what loves you. Trust first, release your real power. Communicate with your heart, a new source of intelligence. Love, give, serve, add value, then watch what comes back. Bless them and release them, learn the lessons and move on. Be open to everything you can remake your life. Make peace, not war with words, create belief and confidence. It takes teamwork to make the dream work, seek caring, creative allies. Nurture your relationships, they are the core of your success. A new world opens with networking. But George Fraser doesn't stop there. He shows you how to go from networking to connecting when you experience that heartfelt feeling of trust and exciting burst of energy with someone. And then when you each willingly add special value to each other and achieve more together than either of you could achieve alone, that's when you're clicking.

Click : Ten Truths For Building Extraordinary Relationships Fraser, Personal growth guru Stephen Covey calls George Fraser a masterful teacher. TV host and journalist Tony Brown calls him a visionary with the rare combination of leadership and management skills. And each year tens of thousands of people attend his seminars and conferences to learn how to move beyond networking and start truly connecting to take their relationships to the next level. Now for the first time in a book, Fraser shares the insider secrets that will help you to tap into the richest resource on the planet other people to achieve goals and share your talents in business and in life. The 11 Laws of Likability Michelle Tillis Lederman, 2012 As the founder and CEO of the management training organization Executive Essentials, Michelle Tillis coaches and trains leaders to experience continual growth and achieve results through the power of collaboration, communication and relationships. In 11 Laws of Likability, she presents activities, self-assessment quizzes and real-life anecdotes from professional and social settings to show readers how to identify what's likable in themselves and use those characteristics to build connections with other professionals. The worst thing anyone can do when trying to establish a personal bond with someone is to come across as manipulative or self-serving. That's why Michelle focuses on the power of authentic connections which go much deeper and feel much easier than trying to hit self-imposed business card collection quotas. This book presents a new paradigm that shows even the most networking-averse how to network well and maybe even enjoy the process. You'll discover how to start conversations and keep them going with ease, convert acquaintances into friends, uncover people's preferences, tweak your personal style to enable engaging, reciprocal interactions and leave a lasting impression on others after your initial meeting.

We all know that networking is important and that forming relationships with others is a vital part of success But traditional forms of networking often remove emotions from the equation focusing only on immediate goals This book teaches readers how to build the kind of deep relationships that have true staying power bring genuine joy and provide long term support
