In this lavishly illustrated book Adrian Franklin TV presenter writer and serious collector takes a decade by decade approach to exploring the twentieth century the architecture fashion design and everyday material culture Author from University of Tasmania Get Up, Dress Up, Show Up Petal Ashmole Winstanley, 2024-05-01 This book is about surviving grief and charts a journey of exceptional love Now aged 77 the burden of ambition has left the author and she has with the help of close confidantes reconfigured her life Petal Ashmole Winstanley grew up in Perth Western Australia with two great loves her mother and classical ballet Spurred on by her natural talent and ambition to dance she made the voyage on the SS Canberra to London in the swinging 60s the start of a vibrant career encompassing the glamour global travel and trials and tribulations of a life on the stage Her journey has been one of creative fulfilment often offset by deep sadness and loss that of a longed for baby and the ultimate grief of losing three husbands Petal speaks with gut wrenching honesty of the brutal circumstances leading to each of their deaths and the heartbreaking aftermath of a grief that would not ease Repeated hospice experiences allow her to share an intimate knowledge of what happens before during and after death and have made her an advocate for early AIDS and cancer detection and a fierce believer in Dignity in Dying Sometimes shocking but frequently funny Petal's story of sorrow is peppered with optimism as she recounts how even at the gates of hell she found the strength to get up dress up and show up sporting a dash of red lipstick

Ceramics and Globalization Neil Ewins, 2017-05-04 Neil Ewins study of the

Staffordshire potteries in a period of great global change traces how ceramics production has been affected by globalisation in both familiar and unexpected ways Although many manufacturers such as Wedgwood initially moved production to cheaper labour markets in East Asia others remained in or returned to England once it became clear that outsourcing manufacturing was affecting the brand value and customer perception of their products Neil Ewins explores the complex behaviour of the UK ceramics industry using a combination of evidence from the press trade journals ceramic objects and primary interview evidence of manufacturers retailers and a ceramic designer Ewins suggests that although the surface designs of UK ceramics invariably reflect diverse cultural and stylistic influences a notion of authenticity often still resides in the place and context in which the ceramic product was originally made Overall the book argues that UK ceramics remain culturally complex because of issues of supply and demand and ties to heritage imagined or otherwise Within a context of globalization the book highlights compelling issues which have huge ramifications on UK manufacturing futures
